DEPARTMENT

In order to facilitate a complete and expeditious review by the Personnel Planning and Review Committee (PP&R) of the changes you propose to your personnel procedures, please adhere to the format described below, and also fill out the Background Information. Attach this memo as a coversheet for the written material you submit to PP&R. The Department and College Committees are responsible for ensuring that the proposed procedures are consistent with Section 600 or Section 700, and with the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

FORMAT: A complete Word version of your existing procedures is required as the starting point for the proposed revisions. Any proposed changes to your existing procedures must be indicated using the Track Changes feature of Word. The personnel procedures and a cover sheet are required to be submitted even if there are no proposed changes.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

1. CHECK ONE: Check the level the proposed personnel procedures are for: College level Department level
2. Date that current proposed changes were sent forward _____
3. For Department Personnel Procedures:
 - a. Indicate the date the department faculty voted to approve the proposed changes: 2-23-22
 - b. Indicate the date the CPC voted to approve the proposed changes: _____
4. For College Personnel Procedures:
 - a. Indicate the date the college faculty voted to approve the proposed changes: _____
5. (Optional) Briefly state the rationale for your proposed changes: College practice of administering SEF to "all faculty" spring semester is problematic. This clarifies "all classes," changes to fall semester for tenured faculty, both semesters for probationary, and ensures minimums.

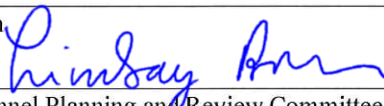

Please email the following to Faculty Affairs email at faculty.affairs@csun.edu:

1. WORD DOCUMENT WITH TRACKED CHANGES showing revisions to the personnel procedures
2. Signed cover sheet in PDF format.

DEPARTMENT OF MARKETING PERSONNEL POLICIES FOR SECTION 600 FACULTY

Personnel policies for Department of Marketing lecturers are governed by the provisions of Section 600 (California State University, Northridge Administrative Manual), the Agreement Between the Board of Trustees of the CSU and the California Faculty Association: Unit 3 – Faculty (the Collective Bargaining Agreement), the Faculty Handbook for the David Nazarian College of Business and Economics, and the Department of Marketing Personnel Policies. The following are the ways in which the Department of Marketing Personnel Policies are more specific.

1. Contributions to the Field of Study

The department defines scholarly publication to include co-authored and single-authored, publicly-disseminated and peer-reviewed: pedagogical research, interdisciplinary research, cases, books, basic research, and applied research.

2. Composition of Department Personnel Committee

The department personnel committee consists of three tenured faculty.

3. Student Evaluations of Faculty (SEF)

- A. All probationary tenure-track faculty members shall have student evaluations administered in all classes in every Fall and Spring semester.

- B. SEF will be administered for all classes taught by each faculty in the fall semester. Any faculty member may elect to have additional evaluations administered in the spring semester by emailing this request to the department coordinator and copying the chair no later than the end of the day on the fourth Friday of the semester. If the administration of SEF in the fall semester does not fulfill both minimums of six units and two classes, additional classes will be evaluated during the spring semester to reach these minimums. Each faculty who teaches less than these minimums in a given academic year will have SEF administered for all classes. For those who need classes evaluated in the spring, student evaluations shall be administered for classes representative of the faculty member's teaching assignment. The classes evaluated shall be jointly determined in consultation between the faculty member being evaluated and the faculty member's department chair. In the event of disagreement, each party shall select 50% of the total courses to be evaluated. Faculty should email the department coordinator and copy the chair indicating which classes they would like to be evaluated in the spring semester no later than the end of the day on the fourth Friday of the semester – if not, the chair will select the classes to meet the six-unit and two-class academic year minimums.
