Revised 10.16
MARKETING DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL POLICY FOR SECTION 600 FACULTY

The Department of Marketing abides by the policies issued by the University (Section 600) and the Nazarian College. The following are the ways in which our policy is more specific than the guidelines in Section 600:

1. Contributions to the Field of Study
   The department defines scholarly publication to include co-authored and single-authored, publicly-disseminated and peer-reviewed: pedagogical research, interdisciplinary research, cases, books, basic research, and applied research.

2. Composition of Department Personnel Committee
   The department personnel committee consists of three tenured faculty. Committee members are elected annually in the Fall semester in accord with University policy.

3. Student Consultation with the Department Chair and/or the Department Personnel Committee for RTP Evaluation of Faculty.
   Students are encouraged to express their opinions regarding the teaching performance of probationary faculty for retention, tenure, and/or promotion and of tenured faculty members for promotion. Students are invited to do so as posted on the Department Bulletin Board. The statement shall read:

You may consult further regarding your views, whether positive or negative, about the teaching performance of (name of faculty being evaluated) by contacting the Department Chair (name, office number and telephone number) and/or the Chair of the Department Personnel Committee (name, office number and telephone number). Any student statement or evaluation provided outside of the regular written student evaluation of teaching effectiveness (see Section 612.5.2.c.(2)(b)) must be identified by name to be included in a Personnel Action File. The student shall be informed of the right to a hearing before the Academic Grievance and Grade Appeal Board should the student feel that any later discriminatory action is taken because of having given the statement.
4. Culture of Valuing Service

The Department of marketing especially recognizes the value of faculty service, both contributions and leadership, at various levels (department, college and university) as well as community service.
