Becoming a Teacher Information Session

Preliminary Multiple Subject Program

CSUN

MICHAEL D. EISNER
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

It's a great time to become a teacher!

The demand for new teachers in California far exceeds the number of candidates in teaching-credential programs.

Demand is highest for science, math, and special-education teachers, but CSUN program-completers are being hired in all subjects.

New LAUSD teachers with regular credentials start at over $53K, with steady increases and excellent benefits.

The Multiple Subject Credential

The Multiple Subject Credential is a license to teach in a California public school setting. It authorizes the holder to teach all subjects in a self-contained class in grades 12 and below, including preschool, and in classes organized primarily for adults. In California, the self-contained setting is most typically found in elementary schools and some middle schools.

In California there is a two tier credentialing system:

The Preliminary Credential - When you have completed our program, you will have earned a Preliminary Multiple Subject Credential. The preliminary credential is valid for five years.

The Clear Credential - Within the five years your preliminary credential is valid, you will need to complete the requirements necessary to earn the clear credential. The clear credential is typically earned through the completion of a General Education Induction Program; an advanced on-the-job training program provided by the public school districts.

Credential Program Pathway Options

There are four Pathway Options through which you may earn your Multiple Subject Credential at CSUN, they are as follows:

The Traditional Pathway is the most flexible. You may begin in either the fall or spring semester and complete the program on either a full or part-time basis. Students usually complete the program through this pathway in three or four semesters.

The Accelerated Collaborative Teacher (ACT) Pathway is offered in collaboration with the Los Angeles Unified School District. This is a cohort model with personalized advising and guaranteed course enrollment. This full-time program is completed in two semesters. Admission is offered in fall semesters only.

The Internship Pathway is open to those with an offer of employment in a public or charter school teaching position. Students in this pathway are working as a full time teacher during the day while completing coursework in the evening. The program is formatted to be completed in two years.

The Integrated Teacher Education Preparation (ITEP) Pathway is a blended program where the student earns a Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Studies and a Preliminary Multiple Subject Teaching Credential concurrently. The ITEP Pathway has two options: ITEP Freshman and ITEP Junior. Detailed information regarding this option can be found on the Liberal Studies Program website at, <http://www.csun.edu/humanities/liberal-studies/college-humanities-teacher-preparation-program>.

Important Notes for ACT and Internship Pathways

IMPORTANT NOTES

- Good academic standing and a cumulative GPA of 2.67 or a 2.75 GPA in your last 60 units is required for admission. For those applying under the ITEP option, a 2.67 cumulative GPA is required.
- If you are a current CSUN student or a graduate of CSUN and have not taken coursework since graduation, you do not need to resubmit transcripts to either office.
- If you are applying as a graduate student and in the process of completing a bachelor’s degree at a school other than CSUN you will be conditionally admitted and required to provide one additional official transcript after your degree has been awarded. The condition will be satisfied once an official transcript with your bachelor’s degree posted has been received. Your bachelor's degree must have been awarded by a regionally accredited institution of higher education.
- Students with an international transcript must submit a comprehensive international evaluation by a CTC approved agency. A list of approved agencies is available at, <http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/cl635.pdf>.

2. Subject Matter Competence

In a credential program, you learn how to teach effectively. You must come to the program with verified knowledge of the subject matter you will be teaching. Subject matter competence can be verified in one of two ways:

California Subject Examinations for Teachers (CSET): Multiple Subjects Exam

Detailed information regarding the CSET can be found at, <http://www.ctcexams.nesinc.com/>. Here you will find information regarding how to register for the test. Information regarding the tests format, content, practice questions and a full practice test are also provided.

It is important to note that CSET scores have a validity period of ten years. If you do not qualify and apply for your credential within that time frame, you will need to retake the exam.

Please have the test scores sent directly to CSUN from the testing agency. If scores were not sent to CSUN, you will be required to submit a copy with your application.

or

Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) approved Elementary Subject Matter Program

A Subject Matter Program is an organized course of undergraduate study which meets the Commission on Teacher Credentialing standards for subject matter preparation.

The document you provide to verify completion must be signed by an authorized person in the education department of a California college or university with an approved program.

Important: For those applying under the ITEP pathway option, subject matter competence must be met prior to student teaching; it is not a program admission requirement.

3. Basic Skills

Different credentials authorize teaching in a variety of different subjects. No matter what specific subject an individual may be teaching, California requires a verified basic level of skill in reading, writing and mathematics. These basic skills can be verified through one of the following options:

- California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST)
- CSET: Multiple Subjects and CSET Writing Skills
- EAP/ELM/EPT
- SAT
- ACT
- Math and English AP Exams
- CTC approved Out-of-State Basic Skills Exams

Detailed information regarding options for meeting the Basic Skills requirement can be found on the CTC website at, <http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/cl667.pdf>.

When verifying basic skills through CSET or CBEST, please have the scores sent directly to CSUN from the testing agency. If the scores are not sent to CSUN, you will need to submit a copy with your application. Information regarding these tests can be found at, <http://www.ctcexams.nesinc.com/>.

Important: For those applying under the ITEP pathway option, basic skills testing must have been attempted prior to program admission; the requirement must be met prior to student teaching.

4. Fingerprint Clearance

Classroom observation and student teaching are a large part of the credential program. In order to be placed in a classroom setting, you must first obtain fingerprint clearance. Applicants must possess a valid Certificate of Clearance or other CTC issued document. Details as to how to apply for the Certificate of Clearance are provided on our website at, <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/COC%20Instructions.pdf>.

It is important to note that the Certificate of Clearance has a validity period of five years. You must maintain valid fingerprint clearance throughout your time in the credential program.

Some candidates may already hold a valid document through the CTC, for example; a substitute teaching permit, activities supervisor's certificate, etc. In this case, that document would meet the fingerprint clearance requirement.

5. Tuberculosis Clearance

Applicants must provide verification of freedom from active tuberculosis. The TB test report or a letter from a physician regarding a chest x-ray, must have been administered within the last two years and clearly indicate a negative result. This test may be completed at any health facility. If the applicant is a current CSUN student, they may contact the CSUN Student Health Center for a tuberculosis test. The telephone number is (818) 677-3666.

6. Statement of Objectives

Applicants must write a one to two page typed essay addressing the following questions:

Why do you wish to become a teacher?

What will you contribute to the profession?

What do you plan to achieve as a teacher?

7. Letters of Recommendation

Applicants must provide two professional recommendations using the specific form found on our website at, <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/Recommendation%20Form%20MS-SS%202.pdf>. The letters must support the applicant's acceptance into the credential program. Recommendations from family members and friends are not acceptable.

8. Early Field Experience

Applicants must have participated in an early field experience working with a group of school age children in the general population they will be teaching once they receive their credential. This experience must have taken place within the last five years and must consist of at least forty-five hours of paid or volunteer experience.

Please complete the Early Field Experience Verification form found on our website at, <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/Fillable%20Field%20Experience%20Form.pdf>.

Be sure to obtain an appropriate signature from a supervisor.

Examples of acceptable early field experience include: teacher aid, teacher assistant, substitute teacher, camp counselor, coach, Boy Scout volunteer, Girl Scout volunteer, YMCA volunteer...

Step Three: Faculty Interview

All credential program applicants are required to participate in an interview with a CSUN College of Education faculty member. Applicants will receive an email directing them to schedule this interview once the complete program application has been evaluated.

This is the final step in your complete program application.

Admission and Orientation

Notification of Admission – Approximately two weeks following the interview the applicant will receive an email regarding their admission status. If they are admitted, they will also receive a credential progress report. This report is an official record of the admitted student's program requirements. Students must read this document carefully as they will be held responsible for its content.

Program Orientation – Once a student has been admitted, they should thoroughly review the program orientation provided on our website at, <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/MS%20Student%20Handbook%202016.pdf>. The orientation will provide detailed information regarding program requirements, coursework pre and co-requisites, the registration process and the application for student teaching.

Program Application Options

The following three program application options are available:

- ❖ Regular Admission
- ❖ Exceptional Admission
- ❖ Intent to Apply

Regular Admission

To be admitted to a basic teaching credential program under Regular Admission, applicants must meet all admission requirements.

Exceptional Admission

The California State University Chancellors Executive Order #1077 allows the College of Education to admit a very limited number of teacher education candidates under exceptional admission.

When one or more of the following required items for admission is not met, the candidate may petition for exceptional admission:

Subject Matter Competence - Passage of CSET or completion of Subject Matter Program

Required GPA of 2.67 overall or 2.75 in last 60 units.

To be considered for exceptional admission you must submit a Petition for Exceptional Admission form with your online program application. The form can be found within our program application instructions on our website. This option is available in fall semesters only.

Carefully read the following:

- While your application is pending review, we strongly suggest that you attempt to complete any missing examination requirements.
- Exceptional admission is not an option if your overall GPA is lower than 2.5
- If you are not accepted under this option once, the next time you apply, all regular admission requirements must be met. The application fee is not transferable.
- You must fulfill the requirement for which you were granted the exception during your first semester in the program. You will not be allowed to enroll in classes the following semester if the requirement is not met.
- If you are admitted under Exceptional Admission, you will not be eligible to student teach in your first semester.

Note: Our staff is unable to provide a status check on your exceptional admission file or an opinion as to whether or not you will be accepted under this option. You will be notified after the committee has made a decision.

Intent to Apply

The Intent to Apply option allows you to take limited coursework without being admitted to a credential program. Registration will be restricted to certain courses. If you enroll in courses other than those identified, you will be asked to withdraw. The ITA option is allowed for one semester while completing program admission requirements; you will not be allowed to continue under this option for a second semester. Applicants for ITA must submit the following items, as described in detail in the program application instructions:

University Application

Credential Program Application

Transcripts

Fingerprint Clearance

Tuberculosis Clearance

Important:

- Individuals are not eligible for Intent to Apply if they have been previously enrolled in a teaching credential program. This option is not available for ACT or ITEP credential program pathways.
- A cumulative GPA of 2.67 or a GPA of 2.75 in your last 60 units is required for application.
- Intent to Apply students are not eligible for financial aid.
- Because requirements can change over time, we cannot guarantee that all courses you take will meet future program requirements. For this reason, it is important that you submit your complete credential program application as soon as possible. The sooner you are admitted, the less likely you will be affected by changes to the credential program.

A list of limited Credential Coursework for ITA Students can be found on our website at, <http://www.csun.edu/eisner-education/credential-office/application-options>.
