I am delighted to welcome you to California State University, Northridge! CSUN’s distinguished faculty and staff join me in thanking you for choosing to attend this great university and for placing your trust and confidence in us. We are glad you are now part of the CSUN family, and we are dedicated to helping elevate you and the community we serve as you begin to fulfill your educational and career expectations and goals.

Student success is the number one priority at CSUN. I take great pride in the exceptional academic experiences provided here. Our campus community is deeply committed to your success, demonstrated by our exemplary record of student achievement, extensive resources available to students, and the many extraordinary opportunities created to enrich both your academic and extra-curricular involvement.

While our faculty and staff are dedicated to helping you succeed, it is essential that you take the time to become knowledgeable about CSUN’s policies, available resources, and what is expected of students. Your commitment to your academic career will greatly enhance your potential for success. I strongly encourage you, therefore, to read and use this handbook often. You will find in these pages the information you need to empower yourself as a student and to become a fully engaged member of the CSUN community.

Best wishes for a productive and enjoyable academic year.

Dianne F. Harrison, Ph.D.

The Matador Statue
WELCOME to Cal State Northridge! We are pleased that you have chosen to become a CSUN Matador. Today is the first step toward becoming a CSUN graduate - - a goal that the faculty and staff are here to help you achieve. I personally look forward to greeting you as you receive your degree a few short years from now.

It may seem odd talking about graduation at New Student Orientation, but the two are linked more tightly than you might expect. Students who attend orientation and learn about the university and its programs and services increase their chance of graduating, but only if they use the information they receive. New Student Orientation will provide you with the “road map” that will guide you toward graduation. Choosing to attend Cal State Northridge was a good decision, choosing to attend new student orientation was an even better decision - - you’re off to a great start.

You face many more decisions as you enter CSUN. You will need to decide upon a major, which classes to take, how much studying to do, and how best to prepare for a career. You will need to decide how involved you want to be on-campus, which activities and events to attend, which clubs and organizations to join, and how much time to invest in these. You will need to make decisions about financing your education, whether or not to work, and if so, how many hours. You will need to decide how to balance your academic life, your social life, and your personal life.

We want you to continue your pattern of good decision making, but we realize that many of these decisions will be difficult to make on your own. That is why we provide a wide array of caring and concerned individuals to help you make decisions that contribute to your success. Regardless of the issue, concern, or indecision, there is someone here to help. Should you ever be unsure of whom to turn for help, please contact my office at (818) 677-2391 - - and we will make sure you are put in touch with the person who can best help.

Attending the university and seeking higher education is a wonderful journey, a journey full of exciting opportunities and challenges that contribute to one’s learning and development. On behalf of the faculty and staff, thank you for selecting California State University, Northridge for your journey. We look forward to assisting you as you work toward and achieve your goals.

Dr. William Watkins
Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students
Welcome to CSUN! You have made an outstanding choice in selecting a university to help you achieve your educational goals.

In addition to welcoming you into the CSUN family as new Matadors, this handbook can be used as an additional reference point. Campus resources, University Policies and other general information are referenced from A to Z, and we encourage you to thumb through it prior to your starting your first semester.

Other resources available to you include our New Student Orientation (NSO) Leadership Team, Professors and Campus Staff, as well online sources like the University Catalog, or “CSUN A-Z”. Be sure to reference the most recent publications on student and campus policies & procedures as they could evolve throughout your educational journey.

Again, welcome to CSUN – we’re excited to have you here.

Office of Student Involvement & Development
Mission
California State University, Northridge exists to enable students to realize their educational goals. The University’s first priority is to promote the welfare and intellectual progress of students. To fulfill this mission, we design programs and activities to help students develop the academic competencies, professional skills, critical and creative abilities, and ethical values of learned persons who live in a democratic society, an interdependent world, and a technological age; we seek to foster a rigorous and contemporary understanding of the liberal arts, sciences, and professional disciplines, and we believe in the following values.

Values
We demonstrate excellence in teaching. We honor and reward high performance in learning, teaching, scholarship, research, service, and creative activity. Because the quality of our academic programs is central to our mission, we encourage intellectual curiosity and protect the multiple expressions of academic freedom.

Commitment to Teaching, Scholarship, and Active Learning. Respect for all people.

1. Commitment to Excellence. We set the highest standards for ourselves in all of our actions and activities and support the professional development of faculty, staff and administrators. We assess our performance so that every area of University life will be continually improved and renewed. We recognize and reward our efforts of greatest distinction and through them provide state and national leadership.

2. Respect for All People. We aspire to behave as an inclusive, cooperative community. Our behaviors, policies, and programs affirm the worth and personal dignity of every member of the University community and contribute to a campus climate of civility, collegiality, tolerance, and reasoned debate.

3. Alliances with the Community. We seek partnerships with local schools, community colleges, businesses, government and social agencies to advance the educational, intellectual, artistic, civic, cultural and economic aspirations of our surrounding communities.

4. Encouragement of Innovation, Experimentation, and Creativity. We seek to provide an environment conducive to innovation, experimentation, and creativity. We encourage all members of our community to take intellectual and creative risks and to embrace changes that will enhance the fulfillment of the University’s mission.

Vision
California State University, Northridge is inspired by the belief that our commitment to educational opportunity, inclusion and excellence will extend the promise of America to succeeding generations. Our graduates will be the vanguard of leaders—committed to sustaining a democracy in which diverse people share in the rights and responsibilities of citizenship, proficient in applying technology to wise purposes, and dedicated to securing a humane world community and sustaining the bounty of the Earth.

As an institution of higher learning:
• We will create a community of shared values in which faculty, students, staff, administrators and alumni will experience personal satisfaction and pride in our collective achievements;
• We will be the first choice for university applicants who seek a rigorous, collaborative teaching/learning experience in a technologically rich environment;
• We will be the leader in enhancing the educational, cultural and economic resources of our region;
• We will receive local and national recognition for our distinctive achievements in teaching, learning, scholarship and service.
History
In the fall of 1956, the San Fernando Valley Campus of the Los Angeles State College of Applied Arts and Sciences was established on the present site of the University. Soon afterward the campus separated from its parent college on July 1, 1958, the founding date of the present University, to become San Fernando Valley State College. At that time, it had an enrollment of about 3,300 students with a faculty of 104. On June 1, 1972, the college was renamed California State University, Northridge. Today, a member of the 23-campus California State University system in Northridge is one of the largest institutions of higher learning in California. It is the third largest university in Los Angeles County, after UCLA and CSU Long Beach. It is the largest residential campus in the CSU system with approximately 10 percent of its enrollment living in residence halls on campus and thousands more in nearby apartments. Bachelor’s degrees are currently given in 51 subject areas and Master’s degrees in 44. There are 27 credentials given in the field of education.

Campus Icons & Traditions

The University Seal
The University Seal is separated into four quadrants each identifying a part of the rich culture that makes California State University, Northridge unique.

- The San Fernando Mission heritage is depicted by the arched adobe columns;
- The feather quill pen & parchment represent scholarship;
- The geomorphology of the San Fernando Valley is created by the surrounding Santa Monica, San Gabriel, & Santa Susana Mountains, along with the Chatsworth Hills;
- The Sun, which is both in our moniker, C “SUN,” as well as an attractive environmental feature which Southern California is famous for. The typography that surrounds the pictograms was originally designed in a serif face, similar to Times Roman. It was updated to the unique sans serif face by Randall Tucker, then director of Reprographics in the early eighties, under the direction of President James W. Cleary.

The Matador Statue – History of an Icon
In 1958, students at then San Fernando Valley State College selected “The Matador” as the official mascot out of 158 recommendations. The students hoped to establish a tradition and find an icon round which to rally and represent the courageous character of the university. Their foresight was wise, and through the years students and alumni adopted The Matador as a symbol of California State University, Northridge’s spirit – nicknaming the gymnasium “The Matadome” and posing for pictures with “Matty,” Northridge’s costumed cheerleader.

The original statue campaign was launched by a campus committee in 1989. The Department of Art hosted a contest to come up with a design. The committee selected a design created by alumnus Frank Panaro ‘84 (Physics), ‘90 (Art). The design went to the foundry; however, plans stalled after the 1994 Northridge earthquake. Unfortunately, due to overriding campus priorities following the earthquake, the statue was never completed and the original full-size clay molds deteriorated and had to be destroyed. To celebrate the 50th anniversary of Cal State Northridge in 2009, a campus-wide committee, under the leadership of the late Vice President for Student Affairs Terry Piper and then Associate Vice President for Student Affairs William Watkins ‘74 (Urban Studies), convened to rekindle the effort. The original designer was not available so the committee began a nationwide search for an artist to bring to fruition the 20-year-old vision. In 2010, Jon Hair, a North Carolina-based sculptor, was commissioned to create and install a bronze Matador statue.
The Matador Statue fundraising committee launched a drive to raise $150,000 to build a bigger-than-life-size bronze statue, the first of its kind on campus. Alumni rallied to support the initiative and no state funds were used. This iconic bronze sculpture salutes the courage, grace, creativity, ability and strength of Cal State Northridge’s students, alumni and the entire campus community. The statue is located across from the Matador Square in the area west of the University Student Union and east of the Oviatt Library. For more information about the statue fundraising campaign, visit www.csunalumni.com.

Tradition of the Rose
Red roses are to be laid at the base of the Matador Statue by every Matador who wants to commemorate or celebrate a significant achievement or a time of overcoming a worthy adversary, including (but not limited to):
- Passing a difficult test or class
- Overcoming a personal obstacle or difficulty
- Joining a significant campus organization
- Achieving a degree
- Getting a new job or promotion
- Celebrating a personal milestone (birthday, engagement, wedding, death)
- Athletic teams celebrating successful games or conference play
- Departments celebrating achievements or making milestones
- Significant occurrences in the life of the campus community
Title IX, Education Amendments of 1972
Section 1681
(a) Prohibition against discrimination; exceptions. No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance, except that:

1. Classes of educational institutions subject to prohibition in regard to admissions to educational institutions. This section shall apply only to institutions of vocational education, professional education, and graduate higher education, and to public institutions of undergraduate higher education;

2. Educational institutions commencing planned change in admissions in regard to admissions to educational institutions. This section shall not apply (A) for one year from June 23, 1972, nor for six years after June 23, 1972, in the case of an educational institution which has begun the process of changing from being an institution which admits only students of one sex to being an institution which admits students of both sexes, but only if it is carrying out a plan for such a change which is approved by the Secretary of Education or (B) for seven years from the date an educational institution begins the process of changing from being an institution which admits only students of one sex to being an institution which admits students of both sexes, but only if it is carrying out a plan for such a change which is approved by the Secretary of Education, whichever is the later;

3. Educational institutions of religious organizations with contrary religious tenets. This section shall not apply to any educational institution which is controlled by a religious organization if the application of this subsection would not be consistent with the religious tenets of such organization;

4. Educational institutions training individuals for military services or merchant marine. This section shall not apply to an educational institution whose primary purpose is the training of individuals for the military services of the United States, or the merchant marine;

5. Public educational institutions with traditional and continuing admissions policy in regard to admissions. This section shall not apply to any public institution of undergraduate higher education which is an institution that traditionally and continually from its establishment has had a policy of admitting only students of one sex;

6. Social fraternities or sororities: voluntary youth service organizations. This section shall not apply to membership practices --

(A) of a social fraternity or social sorority which is exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of Title 26, the active membership of which consists primarily of students in attendance at an institution of higher education, or

(B) of the Young Men’s Christian Association, Young Women’s Christian Association, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and voluntary youth service organizations which are so exempt, the membership of which has traditionally been limited to persons of one sex and principally to persons of less than nineteen years of age;

(C) of the American Legion undertaken in connection with the organization or operation of any boys state conference. Boys Nation conference, Girls State conference, or Girls Nation conference; or

(B) any program or activity of any secondary school or educational institution specifically for --

(i) the promotion of any boys state conference. Boys Nation conference, Girls State conference, or Girls Nation conference; or

(ii) the selection of students to attend any such conference;

(B) Father-son or mother-daughter activities at educational institutions. This section shall not preclude father-son or mother-daughter activities at an educational institution, but if such activities are provided for students of one sex, opportunities for reasonably comparable activities shall be provided for students of the other sex; and (9) Institutions of higher education scholarship awards in “beauty” pageants. This section shall not apply with respect to any scholarship or other financial assistance awarded by an institution of higher education to any individual because such individual has received such award in any pageant in which the attainment of such award is based upon a combination of factors related to the personal appearance, poise, and talent of such individual and in which participation is limited to individuals of one sex only, so long as such pageant is in compliance with other nondiscrimination provisions of Federal law. (b) Preferential or disparate treatment because of imbalance in Such termination or refusal shall be limited to the particular political entity, or part thereof, or other recipient as to whom such a finding has been made, and shall be limited in its effect to the particular program, or part thereof, in which such noncompliance has been so found, or (2) by any other means authorized by law: Provided, however, that no such action shall be taken until the department or agency concerned has advised the appropriate person or persons of the failure to comply with the requirement and has determined that compliance cannot be secured by voluntary means. In the case of any action terminating, or refusing to grant or continue, assistance because of failure to comply with a requirement imposed pursuant to this section, the head of the Federal department or agency shall file with the committees of the House and Senate having legislative jurisdiction over the program or activity involved a full written report of the circumstances and the grounds for such action. No such action shall become effective until thirty days have elapsed after the filing of such report.

Section 1683

Any department or agency action taken pursuant to section 1682 of this title shall be subject to such judicial review as may otherwise be provided by law for similar action taken by such department or agency on other grounds. In the case of action, not otherwise subject to judicial review, terminating or refusing to grant or to continue financial assistance upon a finding of failure to comply with any requirement imposed pursuant to section 1682 of this title, any person aggrieved (including any State or political subdivision thereof and any agency of either) may obtain judicial review of such action in accordance with chapter 7 of title 5, United States Code, and such action shall not be deemed committed to unreviewable agency discretion within the meaning of section 701 of that title.

Section 1684

No person in the United States shall, on the ground of blindness or severely impaired vision, be denied admission in any course of study by a recipient of Federal financial assistance for any education program or activity; but nothing herein shall be construed to require any such institution to provide any special services to such person because of his blindness or visual impairment. Section 1685. Authority under other laws unaffected. Nothing in this chapter shall add to or detract from any existing authority with respect to any program or activity under which Federal financial assistance is extended by way of a contract of insurance or guaranty. Section 1686: Interpretation with respect to living facilities.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this chapter, nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit any educational institution receiving funds under this Act, from maintaining separate living facilities for the different sexes. Section 1687. Interpretation of “program or activity”

For the purposes of this title, the term “program or activity” and “program” mean all of the operations of --

(1)(A) a department, agency, special purpose district, or other instrumentality of a State or of a local government; or

(B) the entity of such State or local government that distributed such assistance and each such department or agency (and each other State or local government entity) to which the assistance is extended, in the case of assistance to a State or local government; (2)(A) a college, university, or other post-secondary institution, or a public system of higher education; or

(B) a local educational agency (as defined in section 2854(a)(10) of this title, system of vocational education, or other school system; (3)(A) an entire corporation, partnership, or other private organization, or an entire sole proprietorship --

(i) if assistance is extended to such corporation, partnership, private organization, or sole proprietorship as a whole: or (ii) which is principally engaged in the business of providing education, health care, housing, social services, or parks and recreation; or (B) the entire plant or other comparable, geographically separate facility to which Federal financial assistance is extended, in the case of any other corporation, partnership, private organization, or entire sole proprietorship; or

(4) any other entity which is established by two or more of the entities described in paragraph (1), (2) or (3): any part of which is extended Federal financial assistance, except that such term does not include any operation of an entity which is controlled by a religious organization if the application of section 1681 if this title to such operation would not be consistent with the religious tenets of such organization.

Executive Order & Legal Notices

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 (20 U.S.C. 1232g) grants students certain rights concerning their educational records. Under the Act, an educational or student record is any record containing personally identifiable information that is directly related to a student and maintained by the University or its agents.

Executive Order 665

The California State University Chancellor’s Office has issued Executive Order 665 requiring that all first-time freshmen who have been admitted Fall 1998 or later to the 23 campus system complete all developmental courses within their first year of enrollment.
Academic Advisement
http://www.csun.edu/undergraduatestudies/academic-advisement

Academic advisement is an essential component for a positive student experience and student success at CSUN. Obtaining academic advisement on a regular basis increases your opportunity to succeed academically, to progress toward your degree objective and to graduate in a timely manner. Planning your next semester’s class schedule with an academic advisor in your department is highly recommended. All first-time freshmen will have mandatory advisement for their first two semesters of enrollment. Advising may also be required in your major for continuing and transfer students. Students who have declared a major should consult with an advisor in the Student Services Center/EOP Satellite in the college of their major. If you have not yet decided on a major you should see an advisor in the Advising Resource Center/EOP.

Academic Advisor/Counselor
A professionally trained academic counselor who will guide/advise students as to what classes to take and guide them through their matriculation. Advisement is mandatory for the first two semesters for every new incoming student.

Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drugs Policy
The manufacture, possession, distribution, sale or use of alcohol, illicit drugs or drug related paraphernalia, and the misuse of legal pharmaceutical drugs on-campus or off-campus while on university business or participating in University sponsored functions, is prohibited. Drugs and drugrelated paraphernalia may be possessed or used as permitted by law and campus policy, or when lawfully permitted for the purpose of research or instruction.

All local, state, and federal laws concerning alcoholic beverages are applicable to all individuals while on University property and are enforceable by the Department of Public Safety. Relevant state laws may be found in the Penal Code, Business and Professions Code and the Vehicle Code, and include the following prohibitions:

1. It is unlawful to furnish, sell, or give alcohol to persons under the age of 21.
2. It is unlawful to furnish alcohol to an obviously intoxicated person.
3. No individual or establishment may sell or distribute liquor on or off university property without a license from the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

4. It is unlawful for any person under the age of 21 to purchase alcohol or possess it in public.
5. No person may be in a public place or drive while under the influence of alcohol. A person with a blood alcohol level of .08% or higher, or a level of .05% or higher for individuals under age 21, is presumed under the influence.
6. It is unlawful to possess open alcoholic beverages in a vehicle. All local, state, and federal laws concerning the manufacture, possession, distribution, sale or trafficking of illicit drugs are applicable to individuals while on University property and are enforceable on and off-campus by the Department of Public Safety. Relevant state laws may be found in the Health and Safety Code.

In addition to legal sanctions, students who violate University policies on alcohol and drugs are in violation of the Student Conduct Code and may be subject to discipline pursuant to Executive Order 1043. While a minor first infraction may result in a warning, subsequent infractions will result in substantial sanctions up to and including expulsion.

While students possessing legally prescribed marijuana may be free from criminal prosecution under California law, they are, nonetheless, required to adhere to the Student Conduct Code. Students who are in possession of legally prescribed cannabis are not exempt from the University’s prohibition against the manufacture, possession, or use of marijuana on campus, or off campus while on university business or participating in University sponsored functions.

If you will be living in or visiting the Residence Halls, the possession or use of alcohol by any individual under the age of 21, or provision of alcohol to an individual under the age of 21, is illegal. Possession or consumption of alcohol in a public place, including balconies, hallways and swimming pools is prohibited, regardless of age. Possession of kegs, party balls, more than one gallon of beer, wine or more than a halfgallon of hard liquor is prohibited, regardless of age.

Assembly Bill (AB) 540 Students
In California, some undocumented students have accessed college through the law. Assembly Bill 540 (AB540). AB540 enables qualified non-resident students to pay in-state fees at public state institutions. Undocumented AB540 students are eligible for in-state financial aid programs under the California (CA) Dream Act. While these state policies alleviated some financial burden, at the federal level the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program offered some undocumented students work authorization and temporary protection from deportation.

Associated Students
M University Student Union (USU) 100
www.csunas.org facebook.com/csunas
(818) 677-2477

Associated Students (AS) is the student body government for CSUN. All registered students are members of AS and pay a semester fee which supports over 200 clubs and organizations, leadership programs, intercollegiate athletics and financial aid. Student leadership positions are available for every student spanning all declared majors. The senate positions require an election win, although some appointments are made to fill vacancies. Students also can play an active role in a wide variety of committees, including campus-wide, legislative, activity based, athletic, academic, environmental etc.

Associated Students Bike Rentals
New for Spring 2016, the Matador Bike Shop is the place to go for all your bicycle repair and maintenance needs. As a mobile bike shop, we are able to move around campus in order to serve as many students as possible. We believe in students repairing student’s bicycles, building an ever growing cycling community at CSUN, and educating Matadors about how to ride bicycles safely, confidently, and knowledgeably.

Associated Students Campus Recycling Services
(818) 677-4262

AS Campus Recycling Services offers a variety of collection and educational programs. Bottles and cans, mixed office paper, cardboard, pallets, ink jet and laser toner cartridges, cell phones and small e-waste items are recycled through the program.
Associated Students Children’s Center
(818) 677-2012

The Children’s Center offers education for the children of CSUN students both on campus and in a network of licensed family child care homes. Subsidized care is available for low-income CSUN student parents. The Children’s Center is located on 18343 Plummer Street.

Associated Students Fair
The AS Fair is the first official event of the fall semester. It is held yearly to introduce students to the various departments of AS and present the services they provide to the university. Games, food, music, and giveaways will also be provided to make the fair more fun and interactive. The event is traditionally held the first Tuesday of the Fall semester at the Bookstore Lawn.

Associated Students Farmers Market
AS Farmers Market is held every Tuesday. Featuring fresh fruits and vegetables including organic produce, artisanal breads, jams & jellies, freshly prepared food, flowers, crafts, and a variety of other products. The Market is held on Eat University Drive.

Associated Students Funding
(818) 677-2477

Associated Students offers funding for many types of student pursuits. Clubs and organizations can apply for funding for their events. Students can apply for funding to attend a conference, seminar, student leadership training or development retreat. Individuals or groups of students from an academic college can apply for funding to conduct or present research or a thesis for their class.

Associated Students Outdoor Adventures
(818) 677-HIKE

Outdoor Adventures (located in the Student Recreation Center) gives students the opportunity to explore, learn and enjoy outdoor opportunities. Students participating in outings will learn how to recreate safety in the great outdoors, in addition to developing an understanding of our natural surroundings, leading to the ability to enjoy and appreciate our earth’s natural beauty and all it has to offer!

Associated Students Productions
(818) 677-2966

AS Productions produces large-scale, high impact entertainment events for the campus including the annual Big Show, Summer Movie Fest, Earth Fair, Big Comedy, Big Lecture and Final Flip events.

Associated Students Sport Clubs
(818) 67-SPORT

AS Sport Clubs at CSUN is designed to allow men and women an opportunity to participate in regional and national competitive sports and games, as well as recreational activities. Each club is formed, developed, governed, and administered by the student membership. Student leadership, interest, and participation in a sport are essential elements of a successful sport club.

Associated Student Sustainability Center
(818) 677-2477

AS Sustainability Center will be a multi-functional space, serving primarily as an expanded central collections location for the campus recyclables. It will also serve as the public face and administrative hub of the Center for its program and services, as the home of the administrative offices of the Institute for Sustainability, and as a focal point for the University community for educational programs, services and issues related to the environment and sustainability.

Audit
Sitting in a course without credit, usually to refresh yourself for a class you’ve already taken in order to get ready for the next level of that class. Permission must be obtained from the instructor and the department chair. A student may not transfer from audit to credit.

Bicycle Compounds
The Bicycle Compounds are fully enclosed, more secure locations to park your bicycle while on campus. Currently there are FIVE convenient locations to park: the B3, B5 and G3 parking structures, and in housing near UPA 11 and 15. Parking your bicycle in the compound greatly reduces the risk of theft. In order to use the bicycle compound, you must register your bicycle with the Department of Police Services’ Transportation Office. Registration is free, quick and easy, and the use of the compound is limited to those who have registered. Just bring a valid identification and your bicycle. Your access to the bicycle compound is gained through swiping your driver’s license - a separate access card is not necessary. Enrollment in both the Matador Bicycle Compound and the Bicycle Registration Program is FREE and can be completed in one visit. www.csun.edu/police/bike-security (818) 677-3946.

Bicycle Registration
Take advantage of the Bicycle Registration program and it will improve your chances of getting your bicycle back if it is ever stolen and recovered. The registration process takes 5 minutes to complete. To register your bicycle, bring your bicycle and proper ID (Driver’s license, state ID or CSUN ID) to the Department of Police Services office located at the corner of Darby and Prairie Street during office hours. Complete the registration form, and have the sticker affixed to your bicycle. If you ever need to report your bicycle as stolen, you can provide the bicycle’s serial number along with the registration form. To register your bicycle, call the Police Services’ Reception desk at (818) 677-2266. For more information, visit www.csun.edu/police/bike-security.

Cheating & Plagiarism
Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids in any academic exercise.

1. Faculty members are encouraged to state in advance their policies and procedures concerning examinations and other academic exercises, as well as the use before examinations of shared study aids, examination files and other related materials and forms of assistance.
2. Students completing any examination should assume that external assistance (e.g., books, notes, calculators, pagers, cell phones/cameras, PDAs, other electronic devices, conversation with others) is prohibited unless specifically authorized by the instructor.
3. Students must not allow others to conduct research or prepare any work for them without advance authorization from the instructor. This includes but is not limited to the services of commercial term paper companies.
4. Substantial portions of the same academic work may not be submitted for credit in more than one course without authorization.

Clubs and Organizations

Matador Involvement Center

www.csun.edu/mic/clubs-and-organizations

(818) 677-5111

Whether you are in your first year of college, a recent transfer, or have a couple of semesters until graduation, involvement in a student club/organization will give you the advantage of working with students, faculty, staff and the broader community in a fun and dynamic environment.

You can stay current on student club/organization and campus events through the Online Calendar of Events provided by the Matador Involvement Center (MIC). While you are on the webpage, visit the Clubs and Organizations Directory. There are over 300 clubs & organizations to choose from, in a variety of categories. You can search within the name or description of the organization, sort by category, and even link to some of the National websites. The “Contact this club” button allows you to send a message to the organization’s contact person. If you cannot find one that matches what you are looking for, The MIC can work with you to start up a new student club or organization. The first step is to visit the MIC and sign up for one of the New Club Workshops to learn how to get started!

Cost of Attendance
The cost of attendance for a school is an estimate of how much money may be needed to attend school for a specific year. It can also be referred to as a school budget which means it is only a plan and not actual costs. The only actual cost on the cost of attendance is fees and tuition. All other items listed on the cost of attendance are estimates. Financial Aid is awarded up to your cost of attendance depending if you decide to live with parents, on-campus, or off-campus.

Community Directors
The Community Director (CD) is a full-time, live-in, professional university staff member responsible for the daily operation of one of six co-ed residential communities. In addition to supervising the Resident Advisors for her/his area, the Community Director creates a comprehensive and responsive student centered educational program for residents in her/his area. Your CD, in addition to your RA, are your ‘go to people’ when you are struggling with anything at all. They are here to help.

Counselor on Disabilities
A professional trained counselor who assists students with disabilities.

Course Reserves
Oviatt Library – 4th Floor
(818) 677-3282

Course Reserves are instructor-selected materials put on reserve for a specific course. They include online books and articles, library-owned materials (books, CDs, videos) and instructor-supplied materials (copies of articles, books, sample tests, etc.). Reserve materials can be searched by instructor or course number in the library online catalog to locate course reserves for a particular class.

Creative Media Studio
Oviatt Library – 1st Floor
(818) 677-2595

In fall 2014, the Learning Commons opened the Creative Media Studio (CMS). This state-of-the-art space provides students with the equipment, resources and support they need to create a wide variety of first-rate, multimedia projects. The CMS is equipped with iMac workstations; cutting-edge software; a soundproof recording studio; and dedicated video cameras, audio recorders, and scanner.

Credit/No Credit
A system where you do not receive a letter grade for taking a course. Depending upon the student’s achievement in the class, the word CREDIT or NO CREDIT will appear on his/her transcript.

Crime Prevention Unit
The Crime Prevention Unit is responsible for crime prevention education and programs on the CSUN campus. This unit takes a community policing approach focusing on the creation of partnerships between campus law enforcement and members of the community, working together to solve problems related to crime and the fear of crime. In an effort to reduce the risk of criminal victimization, the Crime Prevention Unit offers programs such as identity theft prevention, self-defense for women, and pepper spray defense. For more information about this unit and the safety programs offered, or to request a presentation, please visit our website at: www.csun.edu/police/crime-prevention or call (818) 677-5582.

S.T.O.P. (Security Tracking of Office Property) Program
The S.T.O.P. program is a theft deterrent and recovery program for laptop computers and electronic equipment. By registering in this program, the university police will place a security plate and warning sticker on your property. If the plate is removed or tampered with, a permanent etching becomes visible stating that the item has been stolen and to call the STOP hotline. Contact the Crime Prevention Unit at (818) 677-5820 to schedule a time to register your property in the S.T.O.P. Program. $10.00 per item. For more information, visit www.csun.edu/police/personal-electronics-security

CSU Foundation Scholarships
The CSU Foundation offers scholarships to each of the 23 CSU campuses on an annual basis. Each scholarship within this program has different eligibility criteria, and may be offered on a rotating basis. The CSU Trustees’ Award for Outstanding Achievement is a prestigious scholarship offered on a yearly basis. It is reserved for undergraduate and graduate students who are involved in community service, have overcome adversity, demonstrate financial need, and have a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA. The application will be available at the beginning of the spring semester.

CSUN Campus Store
http://www.csuncampusstore.com
(818) 677-2932

Who we are: CSUN chose Follett Higher Education Group to manage your bookstore. We are a family-owned company, operating with integrity and a commitment to the customers we serve for more than 138 years. We manage more than 1,200 college and university bookstores across North America. Additionally, we provide support services and used textbooks to over 1,800 independently managed bookstores. We’re committed to our students. Our goal is to ensure you have access to all the tools you need to make the most of your time at California State University, Northridge.

As you begin your college adventure, you’ll need support—from your family, your professors, and your fellow students. But you’ll also need a place you can trust to have the right stuff—the course materials and supplies you need to succeed. Our team of experts is here to help you get the most out of your college experience. And we’re not just in-store: shop www.csuncampusstore.com for the largest online inventory of used textbooks, and get the same top-notch customer support.

Textbooks and more: Getting the right books and course materials is important to your success as a student. Lucky for you, we have a direct connection to your instructors. Each term, we find out directly from them which materials they want you to have. In many cases, this includes special course packs, access codes, and study guides.

Value: We know textbooks and course materials are expensive, so we’re constantly looking for ways to make learning more affordable. With our large selection of used books, rental and digital options, and even our Price Match* program, you are sure to get the best value at the CSUN Campus Store.

Convenience: We’re on campus and online. You can order your books from www.csuncampusstore.com and have them shipped to you, or pick them up at the store to skip the shipping charge. And, we also have all those little items you forgot you need: #2 pencils, scantrons, exam books, notebooks, and more.

Choices: We know that what works for your classmate might not work for you—that’s why we offer so many choices in textbook format. Buy new, used or digital books, or opt to rent your books. Choose the program that suits you best, or the one that saves you the most! Not sure? One of our associates will be happy to help.

Integrity: Follett was the first academic retailer to develop standards for fair labor practices in the manufacture of collegiate clothing and gifts. We are also a proud member of the Fair Labor Association (FLA), a nonprofit organization dedicated to ending sweatshop conditions in factories worldwide. Each of our general merchandise suppliers is also a member of the FLA, so you can shop with pride.

Delivering Savings and Choice: No two students study or learn the same way. That’s why we offer the convenience and flexibility to let you decide how, when and where you want to obtain your textbooks and course materials. Whatever you choose. The CSUN Campus Store has course materials that fit your needs and budget.

Your Choice: textbook format. If you want to keep your textbook for reference, especially if it is for a course in your major, purchasing a new or used book is likely the best fit. If the book is for a Gen Ed class, you may not need it later, and rental will provide you with the lowest up-front cost. If you prefer a lighter backpack, want the option to take notes right in the text and to network with other students using the book, you may prefer to have a digital book.

Used Books: If you need to purchase a book, used books may offer the best value. A used book can save you 25% off the price of a new book and has the same content! Bottom line, if you want to keep your book for future use, it’s the most cost-effective option. Shop our online efolett network for the largest inventory of used books anywhere.

New Books: Why would you want to buy a new book? Maybe you just love that new book smell. Or maybe you don’t like to see what other students have highlighted. Sometimes your instructor wants to use the most recent edition of a book, and there just aren’t any used copies available. Either way the CSUN Campus Store has new versions of all the textbooks in the store and with our Price Match* program you can be sure you are getting the best price.

Rent-A-Text

We know that going to college costs more now than ever before, and books are big-ticket items. To help ease the burden, we now offer you the ability to rent your textbooks. In addition to saving you money, our Rent-A-Text program offers convenience and flexibility.

Why should you rent?
Renting you textbooks offers you the lowest up-front cost. On average, you’ll save more than half the price of a new book. And, it’s easy!

How does it work?
You can rent your books in-store or online. First, find out if your textbook is available for rent. Special red tags on the book shelves in the store and a special icon online will indicate that a title is available to rent. In order to rent, you need to be 18 years of age and provide ID, contact information, and a credit card number as collateral. That’s it!

Can I rent all my books?
We’re working hard with your professors and textbook publishers to identify as many rental titles as possible. Generally speaking, a book needs to be widely used and early in its lifecycle (a recently released edition) to be a rental title.

How is Rent-A-Text different?
Unlike other rental programs, you can convert your textbook rental into a purchase any time before the rental due date with no added fees. If you drop a class, you can return your rented book to the bookstore during the return period for a refund. (Don’t forget: you’ll also need your receipt.) You can also highlight and write in the book. Normal wear and tear is expected.

To get more information about Rent-A-Text visit the CSUN Campus Store! Any of our associates will be glad to tell you more about it and help you get started. You can find us at www.rent-a-text.com.

Digital Books
Follett has long been at the forefront of digital education. Beginning in 1999 with our launch of efollett.com, the first online textbook retail website, to our continuing support of online and digital supplementary materials, we’ve leveraged technology to improve education and bookstore management.

We remain ahead of the curve on digital textbooks as well. For years, Follett offered students access to a world of interactive digital content through a product called CafeScribe.
By allowing students to read, highlight, take notes and share their information digitally, we have provided thousands of students and professors unprecedented levels of interaction. The next generation of this digital platform is called BryteWave. With Follett’s BryteWave digital platform, students get all of the benefits they enjoyed from CafeScribe and more!

Books & More

All about book buyback. It’s the end of the term, you’ve passed the final, and you are really sick of lugging that textbook around. It’s time to sell it back and get some cash.

Q: How much cash are we talking about?
A: It depends on the book’s demand, age, condition, and how many we have in stock. But we often pay up to 50% off the price you paid.

Q: When is the best time to sell?
A: We buy back books every day, but finals week is the best time to sell your books. We’ll pay top dollar as long as we can, but when our inventory gets too high, the buyback price may go down.

Q: Can I sell my books to another student?
A: Maybe. The same edition of the book might not be used next semester. And if you’re selling online, you run the risk of not selling your book at all, or having to wait for your cash. At best, you’re likely to get the wholesale price, as opposed to the higher price we offer when a book will be used again on campus.

Q: Why don’t I get more back for my book?
A: The value of a book depends on two key factors: 1) whether the instructor has informed us if he or she will be using the same book next term; and 2) how many books we have already bought back to meet the need for next term. If we don’t know the book will be used again, or if we already have what we need in stock, the value of the book decreases.

Q: What if I rented my book?
A: Instead of participating in buyback, you’ll need to refer to the rental check-in date. This is the date by which your rented textbook must be returned to the bookstore. The check-in date is printed on your receipt. For any questions regarding rental returns, call or stop by to see us.

Beyond Books:

The CSUN Campus Store is more than just your go to location for textbooks. With a full selection of CSUN gear, gifts, general books, supplies, technology and more, the CSUN Campus Store is your one stop shop for everything you need to succeed as a student and show off your school pride. We even have a Freudian Sip coffee house and café built into the store so you can get a drink or snack between classes and relax or study at one of our community or individual tables complete with power and USB connectors for all of your digital devices.

Tech Center:

On top of all of the great features above, the CSUN Campus Store is also home to the Matador Tech Center. The Matador Tech Center in the CSUN Campus Store is a fully authorized Apple Campus Store and Repair Center. We carry the full lineup of Apple Computers, tablets, iPods and Accessories with the Apple Education Discount and different special offers throughout the year. The Matador Tech Center is also an Apple Authorized Service Provider so we can troubleshoot, diagnose and repair all of your Apple products whether covered by a warranty or not!

But the Matador Tech Center isn’t just an Apple Campus Store and Service Provider. We also carry Dell, Microsoft Surface, Samsung and Acer Hardware with Academic Discounts, as well as a large selection of accessories for all of your tech needs.

Its primary mission is to support and supplement classroom and independent learning; facilitate student and faculty research; and provide students with lifelong skills in identifying, locating, evaluating and synchronizing information.

Degree Planning Guides
The Degree Planning Guides are tools created for all CSUN undergraduate majors. Degree requirements may change over time, so select the guide for your catalog year. Use the guides to navigate course requirements for degree completion in four years, take prerequisite courses in the required sequence, and identify courses that meet both GE and major requirements. View the guides in the Catalog at www.csun.edu/catalog/plan or STAR Act Transfer Planning Guides www.csun.edu/catalog/plan/star-act.

Degree Planning Tools
To assist you with completing your major and degree requirements. CSUN has created tools that audit your degree progress so far and help you plan the courses still needed to graduate. These tools include the Degree Planning Guides, STAR Act Transfer Planning Guides, Degree Progress Report (DPR), My Academic Planner (MAP), and My Plan to Graduate (MPG). Learn more at www.csun.edu/admissions-records/degree-planningtools.

Degree Progress Report
The Degree Progress Report is an audit that shows where a student stands on all CSUN graduation requirements including evaluation of transfer courses. DPR also lists the requirements still needed to graduate. Because DPR reflects your progress, it changes over time. My Academic Planner (MAP) and My Plan to Graduate (MPG) are interactive degree planning tools based on the information in your DPR that allow you to plan required courses in future terms.

Emergencies: 24 hours a day, seven days a week: Dial 9-1-1 http://www.csun.edu/police

The Department of Police Services is a fullservice, accredited agency which provides law enforcement and security services to the university community 24 hours a day/7 days a week. All reports of criminal activity, fire, injury, or hazards should be reported to the department immediately. University police officers are sworn law enforcement officers whose police authority on state university property extends throughout the state, including concurrent jurisdiction with the Los Angeles Police Department on the adjacent streets and community. All state laws, codes and regulations are enforced. The Department prepares and submits a monthly Uniform Crime Report to the California Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The Department also enters reported stolen vehicles and property with serial numbers into the National Crime Information Center computer, allowing for recovery throughout the United States. An annual crime statistics report is also published in compliance with the Federal Clery Act Law. It may be viewed on the department’s website: http://www.
Department of Police Services – Parking and Transportation Division Located at the corner of Darby and Prairie Street Phone: (818) 677-2157
http://www.csun.edu/parking/

The Parking & Transportation Division has a dedicated staff available to assist you with your parking needs. Whether you are seeking information on directions to the campus, need a jump start, or need to purchase a parking permit, you can find answers to your questions by visiting our website or calling our office.

Parking Regulations Summary
Please obey all posted signs at lot entrances and in lots. Please read and heed the parking instructions provided with your parking permit, or call the Parking & Transportation Office at (818) 677-2157.

• Parking permits are required and must be displayed properly at all times.
• University Parking Regulations and the provisions of the California Vehicle Code are enforced on the campus at all times.
• Curb colors are enforced. Blue: disabled permit required. Red: no stopping. Yellow: loading/unloading zone (20 minute limit if not specified). White: Passenger loading/unloading. (5 minute limit). Permits are required the first day of class each semester in all lots.

Where to Display Permits
The parking permit must be clearly visible from outside of the vehicle. The permit must be adhered to the inside of the front windshield, lower right corner (passenger’s side). This repositionable permit does not permanently adhere to the window and may be moved as is necessary. For motorcycles or mopeds, they must be registered at Parking and Transportation Services. Park in motorcycle stalls only.

Departmental Courses
Pre-college level courses that do not count toward any degree, but are designed to help students address academic deficiencies. A new incoming student has their first two consecutive semesters to complete the developmental requirements. If a student fails to pass developmental classes within their first academic year, then they will be stopped out of the University, according to Executive Order 665.

Departmental Scholarships
Departmental scholarships are scholarships that are offered through various CSUN departments. Many times CSUN colleges and departments offer their own independent scholarships. To find out more about departmental scholarships, be sure to visit your department’s website or office.

Disability Resource and Educational Services
Disability Resources and Educational Services (DRES) plays an integral role in the university mission of teaching, scholarship and active learning by furthering the vision of an inclusive society that supports the attainment of academic, professional and personal goals for persons of all abilities. The department fulfills this mission through programs of student service, training and education. DRES pledges to provide a variety of support services to empower students, foster independence, promote achievement of realistic career and educational goals, and assist students in discovering, developing and demonstrating their full potential and abilities. In order to accomplish this, DRES staff members work closely with faculty to facilitate service requests, serve as a resource for disability management issues and suggest accommodations.

In order to be eligible for accommodations, students must first register with DRES. As a student, you are responsible for the following:

• Registering with DRES and providing documentation from a medical professional that states the functional limitations and duration (temporary or permanent) of your disability
- Requesting accommodations for classes each semester
- Requesting alternate formats, such as Braille or electronic text, of textbooks or course materials through DRES as soon as the next semester schedule is set
- Arranging for in-class note takers
- Initiating contact with special programs at DRES
- Finding, training and employing personal care attendants if necessary

If you need assistance, visit the Make an Appointment page or call (818) 677-2684 to schedule a meeting with a DRES counselor.

Disabled Parking
Disabled individuals may utilize disabled parking spaces by displaying the appropriate state issued license plate or placard along with a valid campus parking permit. The permit rate applies to disabled parking on the C.S.U. CSU, Northridge campus. The authority to charge a fee for use of parking facilities by disabled individuals is defined in the California Education Code, section 67301(a), the California Vehicle Code, section 21113, and Title 5 of the California Administrative Code. The misuse of a disabled placard is a criminal offense under the California Vehicle Code 22511.56 (section b) and will be enforced by University Police.

Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation
CSUN is committed to maintaining an inclusive community that values diversity and fosters tolerance and mutual respect. All students have the right to participate fully in university programs and activities free from discrimination, harassment and retaliation. The University will not tolerate behavior that denigrates, humiliates, or stigmatizes individuals on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender expression, gender identity, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, veteran status, or any other status protected by law. Any student who engages in discriminatory, harassing or retaliatory behavior in violation of this policy will face serious consequences and is subject to discipline.

The following kinds of behaviors are some examples of discrimination and harassment when they involve any of the protected statuses mentioned above: telling sexist jokes; using racial epithets; displaying or e-mailing racist cartoons or drawings; making fun of someone’s accent; mocking or teasing someone from a different religion or culture about the way s/he dresses or wears her/his hair; making threats: touching another person without her/his permission; using a symbol of culture in a way that mocks or belittles the culture; wearing or displaying emblems or symbols associated with hate crimes or a history of violence and oppression.

CSUN also prohibits retaliating against a person for participating in an investigation or for good faith reporting or opposing discrimination, harassment or retaliation. Students who believe they have been subjected to discrimination, harassment or retaliation should contact the Office of Equity and Diversity at (818) 677-2077.

The Educational Opportunity Programs (EOP) at California State University, Northridge, is a learning centered and student-centered program. EOP designs, administers and supports programs to deliver access and retention services to CSUN students. Established by legislative mandate in 1969, EOP provides services to historically low-income, educationally disadvantaged, first-generation college students; a population that not only reflects the diversity of CSUN’s feeder communities, but also the diversity of the University itself.

For those who qualify, EOP provides:
- Assistance in completing CSU Mentor and EOP applications for prospective applicants
- Transitional Experience (for first time freshmen and first time transfer students) Mentoring
- Holistic Academic Support Services
- Student Advocacy
- Student Engagement
- Financial Support: EOP Grant (if eligible)

Furthermore, academic support services are provided to all students through the Student Services Center/EOP Satellite office located in each academic college and for undecided students in the Advising Resource Center/EOP.

Additional Educational Opportunity Programs:
- The Faculty Mentor Program provides mentoring services, training, and resources for faculty, staff, and students.
- EOP Resilient Scholars Program is designed to provide access and support to former foster youth.
- EOP Transitional Programs help students bridge the gap between high school, community college and CSUN.
- EOP/Trio Student Support Services Program (SSSP) is dedicated to building a community of support and offers CSUN students the opportunity to participate in program services designed to develop the necessary skills to reach their academic and professional goals.

Academic year ’17–’18 for SSSP is contingent on federal funding.

For more information, please contact the EOP office at (818) 677-4151 or visit www.csun.edu/eop.

Email Accounts
Students are issued CSUN email account when they apply to the University. You should have received a letter from Admissions and Records with your CSUN email address and initial password. Use this information to access your account for the first time. Your CSUN student Gmail account serves as your official email account with the University. This means that the University will use it for official communications and you are responsible for monitoring this account.

Emergency Messaging
CSUN has a mass emergency communication system known as Blackboard Connect that can send time sensitive information messages to all students, faculty and staff using voice, email, text, and social media messaging. The system can be used to broadcast pertinent information and provide details on appropriate response procedures. As a student, it’s important to carefully read and listen to these messages—they provide direction on what to do, or what not to do, during the emergency or critical incident. Executive Order 665
http://www.calstate.edu/eo/EO-665.pdf

In 1998, the California State University Chancellor’s Office issued Executive Order 665 requiring that first-time freshmen complete all developmental courses within their first year of enrollment. If you do not pass required developmental course work within your first year of enrollment at CSUN, you will be stopped out under EO 665. Unfortunately, stopped-out students will be blocked from enrolling at CSUN under the terms of this CSU mandate and may need to take courses at a community college before they may return. Go to class, study hard and always put forth your best effort. You’re worth it.

Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is the amount the family (parents and student) should be expected to contribute toward a student’s education when financial aid that is awarded is not enough. The EFC is based on information you provided on your FAFSA or CA Dream Act application and is used to determine the types of aid you will receive.

Fabrication
Intentional falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise. “Invented” information may not be used in any laboratory experiment, or other academic exercise without notice to and authorization from the instructor. It would be improper, for example, to analyze one sample in an experiment and covertly “invent” data based on that single experiment for several more required analyses. One should acknowledge reliance upon the actual source from which cited information was obtained. For example, a writer should not reproduce a quotation from a book review and indicate that the quotation was from the book itself.

Students who attempt to alter and resubmit academic work with intent to defraud the faculty member will be in violation of this section. For example, a student may not change an answer on a returned exam and then claim that they deserve additional credit.

Facilitating Academic Dishonesty
Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty. For example, one who knowingly allowed another to copy from his or her paper during an examination would be in violation of this section.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
This policy is issued in compliance with CSU Executive Order No. 796, Privacy and Personal Information Management.

- Student Records Administration, and supercedes previous campus policy on this topic.
- This policy constitutes the University’s implementation of the Family
- Educational Rights and Privacy Act (20 U.S.)
- 1232g, hereinafter referred to as FERPA), and its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. 99.
- This policy incorporates amendments to and interpretations of FERPA as contained in the PATRIOT Act and the Solomon Amendment. Further, this policy articulates the University’s expectations concerning the security of student records and electronic student data, and provides direction concerning the processing of subpoenas for student records.
- The purpose of FERPA is to insure the privacy of certain student educational records, hereinafter referred to as “student records” or “records.” FERPA seeks to ensure: That students have access to their records
- That students have an opportunity to challenge the content of their records
- That the University will obtain consent prior to the disclosure of certain student records to third parties. That students will be informed of their FERPA rights.

While FERPA does not bestow a private right of legal action to students who believe that their rights have been violated, the Act does subject universities to enforcement activities by the U.S. Department of Education, including the withdrawal of federal funds.

The Financial Aid and Scholarships Department is here to help you meet your educational goals while at CSUN. Financial aid is available from federal, state and institutional sources. The types of aid available are grants, work-study, scholarships and loans. You must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.gov. The federal code for CSUN is 001153. Financial aid is awarded on an academic year basis, and you must reapply for aid every year beginning in January. AB540 students must complete the CA DREAM Act Application instead by visiting https://dream.csac.ca.gov/. The priority deadline is March 2nd for the FAFSA and CA Dream Act Application to be considered for the most financial aid possible. We promote and offer both on- and off-campus scholarships that can help pay for college and reduce your need to borrow loans. There is CSUN Stars Online for CSUN scholarships and we frequently post new scholarship opportunities on Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook. The Financial Literacy Program is available to provide you with information and skills on managing your money and making sound financial decisions while at CSUN and life beyond graduation. We have a YouTube channel [CSUN Financial Literacy] with videos covering various topics like living on a college budget, credit card management, identity theft prevention, and car buying. Visit our department website for more information and updates.

Financial Aid Balance Check
Financial aid funds are released 10 days prior to the start of the semester, if you are eligible for payment based on your enrollment status, meeting SAP requirements, and having no outstanding document requests on your financial aid ToDo-List. Your financial aid funds are applied to your outstanding university charges first, and then if there are any funds left over, it will be sent to you either as an e-Refund or as a paper check mailed to your home address on file with the University.

Financial Literacy
Getting a college education is an expensive endeavor and this may be the first time you have to handle your own finances. Financial decisions regarding credit cards, student loans, and spending habits made during your college career will affect you for years after your college graduation. Wise money management will allow you to focus on academics and enjoy college life. Because we are committed to your success, the Financial Aid and Scholarships Department offers various resources to help you make informed and effective decisions about managing your money.

Federal Work Study
Federal Work-Study is a type of financial aid that students earn through on or off campus employment received in the form of a paycheck. The intent of the Federal Work-Study Program is to encourage part-time employment and reduce the amount of loan debt incurred while attending college. Money earned under work-study does not count against you when you complete next year’s FAFSA. Undergraduate, Credential and Graduate students with demonstrated high need are considered for a federal workstudy award if all eligibility criteria are met and funds are available.

Floor Standards
Floor Standards are the agreements made by the residents on a given floor concerning how we will relate and treat each other. While Floor Standards can be seen as a list of agreements and expectations, Floor Standards is a process by which we begin forming a healthy community through dialogue, compromise, and commitment.

Floor Standards are developed through group discussion and consensus. Through this format each resident is afforded the opportunity to assert his/her point of view. An underlying tenet is the belief that in order to have one’s needs met, one must accept responsibility for participation in the system designed to negotiate one’s needs.

Food Garden and Compost Site
Ground-breaking for the campus food garden by student volunteers, staff and faculty took place in Spring 2010. The food garden is used to educate students about organic and community gardening, nutritious food, and healthy eating. Kitchen waste and coffee grounds are collected from campus dining locations and processed on-site. The nutrient rich compost is then used in the garden. The CSUN Fraternity and Sorority community is unique in that its diversity reflects that of the campus population as a whole. Students of all backgrounds and cultures have found a place for themselves in one of the over 52 chapters. Involvement in a fraternity or sorority can enrich the undergraduate experience and provide a strong foundation for cognitive, social, and personal development. Our students hold a core sense of values that allow for stricter academic standards, volunteerism on campus and in the community, development and strengthening of leadership skills, the creation of a strong support network, and life-long friendships and learning. Organizations are self-governed and most are affiliated with one of four different governing councils: Interfraternity Council, National Pan-Hellenic Council, Panhellenic Council or the United Sorority and Fraternity Council. Freshman Common Reading
As a new freshman, you are invited to read this book and to discuss it as part of a campus-wide community of readers. If you are enrolled in UNIV 100 for fall or summer 2017, you will have the opportunity to read Every Day as part of the course. But even if you’re not taking UNIV 100, reading and talking about the book will place shared academic engagement at the very center of the community that you are about to join. The Common Reading Program invites everyone on campus to think, talk, and learn together across and beyond the boundaries of the classroom by using the book as a starting point.

Freshman Composition Writing Lab
Learning Resource Center Oviatt Library Room 300
www.csun.edu/lrc • lrc@csun.edu

Freshmen Convocation
Office of Student Involvement and Development http://www.csun.edu/nso/freshmanconvocation
(818) 677-2393

The Freshman Convocation is a campus tradition that formally welcomes the freshman class into the CSUN community. Each year, the campus invites its freshman to begin their CSUN academic journey with the entire class assembling in the Matador Square and to march together down Matador Walk to the Oviatt Lawn. An inspiring program which features an important keynote address of interest to the entire campus community will be shared; many classes will use the address as a source of information for class discussions and assignments. The Freshman Convocation is traditionally held on the first Thursday in September at 6:00 pm on the Oviatt Library Lawn. A reception will follow. Freshman will be asked to assemble in Matador Square beginning at 5:00 pm. There is no dress code, however Matador colors and CSUN letters are always a great choice to show your campus pride!

Fuel Cell
CSUN was the first institution in the world to have a grid connected fuel cell plant. The plant has a 1 megawatt capacity and eliminates more than 6.400 tons of CO2 a year that otherwise would be released into the atmosphere. The plant generates up to 8.3 million kWh per year of electricity from the chemical conversion, rather than the combustion, of natural gas. Waste heat (approx. 22 billion BTUs a year) from the plant is captured to heat buildings, the USU pool, and domestic hot water. The plant operates at a combined (heat and electricity) efficiency of over 80%.

The International and Exchange Student Center (IESC) assists international students by providing immigration advisement relating to your visa status. As an international student, IESC will help you acclimate to a new living and learning environment at CSUN and in Los Angeles through a range of on campus and offcampus cross-cultural programs, offered by IESC and the International Student Association. Find out more at Coffee Hour on Fridays from 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm.

IESC also assists in promoting internationalization by providing local CSUN students with information on a range of study away programs, including CSU IP study abroad and campus-based exchange programs. Alternatively, you could choose to study within the United States or U.S. territories through the National Student Exchange program. You may think you can’t afford to study away, but IESC will encourage you to see that you can, as you still pay your tuition to CSUN and you may be eligible to apply for financial aid and scholarships.

IESC hosts coffee hour on Fridays during semester from 2.00 pm – 4.00 pm. Feel free to come along and make friends with students from all over the world!

Language Speech & Hearing
The Language, Speech, and Hearing Center offers 5 diagnostic/evaluation clinics and 12 speech therapy clinics throughout the semester calendar at CSUN. The Center also operates an Early Intervention Program (EIP) throughout the year. Our EIP program accepts client referrals from local Regional Centers such as North, West, and East LA, Frank D. Lanterman, Tri-Counties, and others. Evaluation and/or therapy services are provided by our upper division Baccalaureate and Master’s level students who are in training to become professional speech/language or hearing specialists. They work under the direct supervision of faculty supervisors who have professional certification and are licensed by the State of California. The department of Communication Disorders and Sciences is an accredited training program by the Council on Academic Accreditation of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. The Language, Speech and Hearing Center provides comprehensive evaluations of speech/language or hearing related problems along with a wide array of treatment programs which are performed in the individual therapy or group setting. Clients are enrolled according to the university calendar for the fall, spring or summer sessions. The Center is also involved in the early identification of communication disorders through its pre-school and elementary school speech or hearing screening programs.

The National Student Exchange program offers you the opportunity to study at one of about 200 colleges and universities across America, as well as some in Canada, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Guam for one of two semesters! You can be an NSE student as a Freshman, Sophomore, Junior or Senior. You DON’T have to have a major declared, but you MUST have a minimum GPA of 2.5. You will either pay your tuition to CSUN and receive financial aid (if eligible) or pay in-state tuition at the host school and receive financial aid (if eligible).

To find out full information about all IESC Study Away opportunities, please attend an information session THIS fall so that you can plan ahead. Sign-up online for a FREE information session at http://www.csun.edu/international/information-sessions

Need-based scholarships
Need-based scholarships may take academics into account, but the primary criterion for qualification is demonstrating financial need. Financial need is determined by subtracting the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) from the Cost of Attendance (COA).

New Student Orientation
www.csun.edu/nso
(818) 677-4100

The New Student Orientation (NSO) program annually welcomes over 10,000 new incoming Freshmen, Transfer, and International Students just prior to the beginning of each fall semester. The goal of NSO is to support the continuous process of integrating new students into the academic, cultural and social context of CSUN. Although orientation is completed before classes start, we highly encourage you to stay connected with your orientation leaders as well as your peers you met at the time of your orientation. They will be a great resource for you as you navigate your academic experience.

If you’re interested in becoming a part of the NSO team there are many leadership opportunities for you including becoming a NSO leader, Matador Mentor, student coordinator or TAKE cast member! Look for applications that start coming out in October and feel free to contact us at newstudentorientation@csun.edu, or call!

(818) 677-2077

CSUN students have a right to work, live, and learn in an environment free from discrimination, harassment and retaliation. To that end, the Office of Equity & Diversity affirms CSUN’s commitment to diversity and inclusion, to the policies and practices that ensure equitable consideration and opportunity in education and employment, and to a culture that embraces a multiplicity of talents, knowledge, beliefs, abilities and experiences. We value inclusion as a necessary condition for achieving institutional excellence, and we strive to provide leadership that extends beyond the fulfillment of basic regulatory requirements. Every member of our campus community plays an integral role in contributing to our diversity and in addressing fundamental issues of bias and exclusion. Learn more about what constitutes discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs University Hall 310
http://www.csun.edu/studentaffairs/
(818) 677-2391

The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs is responsible for the overall quality of student life at CSUN. The Vice President and his staff provide coordination and direction to the Division of Student Affairs and work closely with other components of the campus to ensure that programs, services, policies, and procedures foster the development of students and the achievement of their academic and career goals. Matters related to student conduct and academic integrity also fall within the purview of the Vice President for Student Affairs.
The Office of Undergraduate Studies is responsible for the undergraduate degree plans and course offerings at CSUN. This office enforces academic policy and sends notifications regarding your academic status at the university. Undergraduate Studies reviews a wide variety of student appeals including, but not limited to, changes to academic schedules during the last 20% of the semester and retroactive petitions, denied major/minor requests and extensions for time to satisfy the Upper Division Writing Proficiency Exam policy. The Associate Vice President for Undergraduate Studies oversees the operations of academic advisement, Academic First Year Experiences (AYFE), Academic Services for Student Athletes (ASSA), Community Engagement, Developmental Mathematics, General Education Honors Program, General Education Paths, Learning Resource Center (LRC), Matador Achievement Center (MAC), Special Major, Stretch Writing, University Assessment and the University Catalog among others.

Orange Grove
The grove’s more than 400 orange trees serve as one of the last remnants of the San Fernando Valley’s agricultural past. The grove features a walkway, stream, natural spring well, red-eared slider turtles, ducks, koi and goldfish, and a variety of flowers including water lilies and water hyacinths. The five acre site is modeled after a California seasonal wetland to be enjoyed by the campus community and the public. Oranges are harvested annually and donated to local food banks.

Parking Citations and the Appeal Process
Parking citations are issued for violations of the University Parking Policy under the California Vehicle Code Section 21113. A parking citation may be contested through a three level appeal process. An appeal form may be obtained at the Parking and Transportation Office located in the Department of Police Services at the corner of Prairie Street and Darby Avenue, or on line by logging on to www.pticket.com/csun. Further instructions can be obtained by calling (818) 677-2157. If a parking citation is issued on your vehicle you should do one of the following:

(1) pay the fine noted on the citation, or
(2) appeal the citation. Ignoring the parking citation will result in a hold on the renewal of your vehicle registration by the California Department of Motor Vehicle (DMV). More detailed parking information is contained in the University Parking Policy on our web page: http://www.csun.edu/parking/parking-citationsand-appeals.

starts at no cost. If you are parked on campus and require a jump start, call Police Services dispatch and someone will be sent to assist you.

Lock-out Assistance
If you have locked your keys in your vehicle and are parked on campus, a parking officer can assist you at no cost. Call Police Services dispatch and someone will be sent to assist you.

Parking Fees
Students must purchase semester and/or academic year parking permits on-line via the campus portal.*

- Semester Parking Permit $180.00
- Residential Parking Permit (Academic Year) $360.00
- Semester Motorcycle Registration* *(Free with regular semester permit) $46.00
- Daily Parking Permit $6.00 Permits purchased at dispensers are valid in student lots only and in the UPA (G9) parking structure. Permits purchased in the UPA parking structure (G9) are valid for all student lots and may be purchased for multiple days.
- Parking Meters max. 15 min. to 2 hrs. $2.00 per hour. CSUN Parking permits are not honored at metered parking stalls.
- Student, residential, semester, and academic-year parking permits are available for on-line purchase. Printable receipts that act as temporary permits are available immediately. This fast, easy and convenient process can be accessed through my Northridge Portal on the csun.edu website.
- On-line parking permits will remain available for purchase throughout the year and in most cases the official permit will be delivered within two weeks. No 2.9 % credit card convenience fee will be charged for purchasing parking permits online. Permits are mailed to the student’s address on record so remember to update your information on SOLAR.

Part-time Student
When paying fees, any student who takes 6 units or less is considered part-time. In terms of course load requirements for Financial Aid, Visas, Veterans Benefits, or many insurance companies, anyone who takes less than 12 units is a part time student.

Pay-by-Space & Metered Parking Stalls
All “Pay-by-Space” machines and meters require payment for activation. Pay-by-Space machines accept bills, coins, Master Card, and Visa; parking meters accept coins only. Taping money to the meter is not an acceptable form of payment. CSUN Parking permits are not honored at Pay-by-Space and metered parking stalls. Citations will be issued for pay-by-space and meter violations. A vehicle parked at non-operational meters will be subject to a citation.

Plagiarism
Intentionally or knowingly representing words, research, ideas or work of another as one’s own in any academic exercise. Direct Quotation: Every direct quotation must be identified by quotation marks, or by other means of identification, and must be properly cited within the text or in a footnote. Paraphrase: Prompt acknowledgment is required when material from another source is paraphrased or summarized in whole or in part in your own words.
Information or Borrowed Facts: Information obtained in one’s reading or research which is not common knowledge among students in the course must be acknowledged. Examples of common knowledge might include the names of leaders of prominent nations, basic science laws, etc. Materials which contribute only to one’s understanding of the subject may be acknowledged in the bibliography and need not be immediately footnoted. One footnote is usually sufficient to acknowledge indebtedness when a number of connected sentences in the paper draw their special information from one source. When direct quotations are used, however, quotation marks must be inserted and prompt acknowledgment required.

The consequence of academic dishonesty includes the following: All faculty are required to report incidents of academic dishonesty to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. As with any violation of the Student Conduct Code, academic dishonesty can result in a disciplinary Sanction, up to and including probation, suspension or expulsion. In addition, faculty will impose an academic sanction, up to and including a failing grade in the course. Grades resulting from academic dishonesty remain on the student’s record even if the course is repeated.

President’s Volunteer Service Award (PVSA)
Unified We Serve
www.csun.edu/mic/volunteer
(818) 677-5111

The President’s Council on Service and Civic Participation created the President’s Volunteer Service Award program (PVSA) as a way to thank and honor those who, by their demonstrated commitment and example, inspire others to engage in volunteer service. At CSUN, the President’s Volunteer Service Award is administered by UWS and it recognizes CSUN students, clubs, organizations, faculty and staff that have achieved a certain standard- measured by the number of hours served over an academic calendar period.

PVSA is a great avenue to be recognized by the President of the United States for your service! Get involved and serve the community for a year and you could receive this prestigious award. You choose to accomplish one of three levels: Bronze, Silver, or Gold. All award levels include: an official President’s Volunteer Service Award pin, personalized certificate of achievement, a note of congratulations from the President of the United States, a letter from the President’s Council on Service and Civic Participation. We believe that as a committed and dedicated member, YOU deserve the honor to be recognized! To learn more about PVSA, visit the Matador Involvement Center website.

Probation and Disqualification
Policies remain in effect regarding probation and disqualification for failing to meet the scholastic standards of the University as described in the University Catalog. Any student with either a Cumulative or CSUN GPA below 2.00 at the conclusion of any term (Fall/Spring) is placed on Probation. While on academic probation, students will be disqualified if either their overall or campus grade point average falls below the following levels:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class Level</th>
<th>Grade Point Average</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Freshman (1 - 29 units earned)</td>
<td>1.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sophomore (30 - 59 units earned)</td>
<td>1.70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Junior (60 - 89 units earned)</td>
<td>1.85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Senior (90 + units earned)</td>
<td>1.95</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Disqualification from CSUN means that students will be dis-enrolled from any courses in which they are enrolled. Deadlines for readmission are available at:
http://www.csun.edu/admissions-records/admissions-calendar

Students will not be permitted to take classes at CSUN for a minimum of one semester after disqualification and will need to apply for readmission as a previously disqualified student.

CSUN’s outdoor subtropical rainforest is fully sustained from the power generation byproducts including excess water and CO2. The 9,000+ gallons per/day of waste water from the fuel cell plant is collected in a 12,000 gallon storage tank and used to irrigate the rainforest through a gravity flow system. The rainforest utilizes nearly all the waste from the fuel cell and satellite chiller plant.
Rape Crisis Advocate

In accordance with section 264.2 of the California Penal Code, the services of a rape crisis advocate must be offered to all sexual violence victims. The CSUN police department has a rape crisis advocate on staff that is available if requested. The primary responsibility of a rape crisis advocate is to provide emotional support during the law enforcement investigation and to facilitate communication between law enforcement officers, medical personnel, and the victim. The advocate will accompany you to the medical facility and be present when you meet with the nurse for their investigation and during the forensic exam (referred to as a SART exam), if you wish. Should you decline to have a rape crisis advocate with you during this process, you may have a friend or family member present. You can find more information at: http://www.csun.edu/police/rape-crisis-advocate.

Recycling

The recycling program at CSUN was established in 1991 as a collaborative effort between Associated Students (A.S.) and the university to promote the benefits of recycling and divert recyclable materials from the university’s waste stream. Today, A.S. Campus Recycling continues to support the campus community by collecting paper, cardboard, pallets, inkjet and laser toner cartridges, cell phones, tin cans and beverage containers. In all, more than 200 locations are served throughout the campus. Campus Recycling’s collections services and outreach also provide students with organizational and leadership roles as well as work experience.

Student participants are an example of environmental stewardship for future generations.

Resident Advisors
The Resident Advisor (RA) is a fellow college student who was selected from a large group of applicants to serve the students on a floor in the residence halls. They can be of assistance to you in your adjustment to college. The RA’s job description is extensive and here at CSUN Student Housing is probably a bit different than what you might imagine an RA to be. Our RAs are tasked to help residents to communicate and learn from one another. They are knowledgeable about the campus and resources that will be helpful to you. A large part of the RA’s job is to facilitate a process called “Floor Standards”.

Residential Life Parking Lots
Valid CSUN residential parking permits and CSUN employee parking permits are honored in residential lots. Valid CSUN residential parking permits are honored in all student lots. Valid CSUN student parking permits are honored in the UPA parking structure (Lot G9) but are not honored in surface residential parking spaces. Students living in the UPA (University Park Apartments) are required to purchase a special resident permit (“R” permit) that allows them to park in the residential parking areas and in any student parking lot on campus. Resident permits are only available online and are valid for the academic year. Parking officers patrol these areas daily, 7 days a week and are authorized to issue citations on vehicles in violation of parking rules and regulations.

Sexual Harassment
Sexual harassment is a form of discrimination on the basis of sex or sexual orientation. It occurs when there is unwelcome verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, and includes aggression, intimidation or hostility based on gender or sex-stereotyping, even if those acts are not of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment often involves coercive behavior and is not a matter of mutual choice or consent. Any student who engages in any form of sexual harassment in violation of this policy faces serious consequences and is subject to discipline, including suspension or expulsion from the CSU.

Some examples of sexual harassment may include: repeated staring or leering at someone’s body; displaying or e-mailing sexually explicit cartoons or pictures; telling sexually explicit jokes or stories; unwanted hugging, patting, kissing, touching and other sexual advances; whistling at or rating men or women who walk by; sending unwanted suggestive text messages.

Sexual Violence
CSUN does not tolerate and strictly prohibits sexual violence in any form. Sexual violence means physical sexual acts such as sexual assault, sexual... battery, rape, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking perpetrated against an individual against his/her will and without affirmative consent or against an individual who is incapable of giving consent due to the use of drugs or alcohol, status as a minor, or disability. Any student who violates this policy prohibiting sexual violence will be subject to discipline, up to suspension and expulsion from the CSU.

The University’s primary concern is the safety of its campus community members. The use of alcohol or drugs never makes the survivor at fault for sexual violence. Survivors should not be deterred from reporting incidents of sexual violence out of concern that they might be disciplined for related violations of drug, alcohol or other University policies.

Student Conduct Code
Title 5, California Code of Regulations, §41301. Standards for Student Conduct

Campus Community Values
The University is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy living and learning environment for students, faculty, and staff. Each member of the campus community should choose behaviors that contribute toward this end. Students are expected to be good citizens and to engage in responsible behaviors that reflect well upon their University, to be civil to one another and to others in the campus community, and contribute positively to student and University life.

Grounds for Student Discipline
Student behavior that is not consistent with the Student Conduct Code is addressed through an educational process that is designed to promote safety and good citizenship and, when necessary, impose appropriate consequences. The following are the grounds upon which student discipline can be based:

Dishonesty, including:
A. Cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty that are intended to gain unfair academic advantage.
B. Furnishing false information to a University official, faculty member, or campus office.
C. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of a University document, key, or identification instrument.
D. Misrepresenting one’s self to be an authorized agent of the University or one of its auxiliaries.

2. Unauthorized entry into, presence in, use of, or misuse of University property.

3. Willful, material and substantial disruption or obstruction of a University-related activity or any on-campus activity.

4. Participating in an activity that substantially and materially disrupts the normal operations of the University, or infringes on the rights of members of the University community.

5. Willful, material and substantial obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or other traffic, on or leading to campus property or an off-campus University related activity.

6. Disorderly, lewd, indecent, or obscene behavior at a University related activity, or directed toward a member of the University community.

7. Conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person within or related to the University community, including physical abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, or sexual misconduct.

8. Hazing or conspiracy to haze. Hazing is defined as any method of initiation or pre-initiation into a student organization or student body, whether or not the organization or body is officially recognized by an educational institution, which is likely to cause serious bodily injury to any former, current, or prospective student of any school, community college, college, university or other educational institution in this state (Penal Code 245.6), and in addition, any act likely to cause physical harm, personal degradation or disgrace resulting in physical or mental harm to any former, current, or prospective student of any school, community college, college, university or other educational institution. The term “hazing” does not include customary athletic events or school sanctioned events. Neither the express or implied consent of a victim of hazing, nor the lack of active participation in a particular hazing incident is a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing is not a neutral act, and is also a violation of this section.
9. Use, possession, manufacture, or distribution of illegal drugs or drugrelated paraphernalia, (except as expressly permitted by law and University regulations) or the misuse of legal pharmaceutical drugs.
10. Use, possession, manufacture, or distribution of alcoholic beverages (except as expressly permitted by law and University regulations), or public intoxication while on campus or at a University related activity.
11. Theft of property or services from the University community, or misappropriation of University resources.
12. Unauthorized destruction or damage to University property or other property in the University community.
13. Possession or misuse of firearms or guns, replicas, ammunition, explosives, fireworks,
knives, other weapons, or dangerous chemicals (without the prior authorization of the campus president) on campus or at a University related activity.
14. Unauthorized recording, dissemination, or publication of academic presentations (including handwritten notes) for a commercial purpose.
15. Misuse of computer facilities or resources, including:
A. Unauthorized entry into a file, for any purpose.
B. Unauthorized transfer of a file.
C. Use of another’s identification or password.
D. Use of computing facilities, campus network, or other resources to interfere with the work of another member of the University community.
E. Use of computing facilities and resources to send obscene or intimidating and abusive messages.
F. Use of computing facilities and resources to interfere with normal
University operations.
G. Use of computing facilities and resources in violation of copyright laws.
H. Violation of a campus computer use policy.
16. Violation of any published University policy, rule, regulation or Presidential order.
17. Failure to comply with directions, or interference with, any University official or any public safety officer while acting in the performance of his/her duties.
18. Any act chargeable as a violation of a federal, state, or local law that poses a substantial threat to the safety or well-being of members of the University community, to property within the University community or poses a significant threat of disruption or interference with University operations.
19. Violation of the Student Conduct Procedures, including:
A. Falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information related to a student discipline matter.
B. Disruption or interference with the orderly progress of a student discipline proceeding.
C. Initiation of a student discipline proceeding in bad faith.
D. Attempting to discourage another from participating in the student discipline matter.
E. Attempting to influence the impartiality of any participant in a student discipline matter.
F. Verbal or physical harassment or intimidation of any participant in a student discipline matter.
G. Failure to comply with the sanction(s) imposed under a student discipline
proceeding.
20. Encouraging, permitting, or assisting another to do any act that could subject him or her to discipline. (c) Procedures for Enforcing This Code The Chancellor shall adopt procedures to ensure students are afforded appropriate notice and an opportunity to be heard before the University imposes any sanction for a violation of the Student Conduct Code.
(d) Application of This Code Sanctions for the conduct listed above can be imposed on applicants, enrolled students, students between academic terms, graduates awaiting Degrees, and students who withdraw from school while a disciplinary matter is pending. Conduct that threatens the safety or security of the campus community, or substantially disrupts the functions or operation of the University is within the jurisdiction of this Article regardless of whether it occurs on or off campus.
Nothing in this Code may conflict with Education Code Section 66301 that prohibits disciplinary action against students based on behavior protected by the First Amendment. Note: Authority cited: Sections 66017, 66452, 66600, 69810, 89030, 89030.1 and 89035. Education Code. Reference: Sections 66450, 69813 et seq. and 89030. Education Code: and Section 245.6, Penal Code.

Title 5, California Code of Regulations, § 41302. Disposition of Fees: Campus Emergency: Interim Suspension. The President of the campus may place on probation, suspend, or expel a student for one or more of the causes enumerated in Section 41301. No fees or tuition paid by or for such student for the semester, quarter, or summer session in which he or she is suspended or expelled shall be refunded. If the student is readmitted before the close of the semester, quarter, or summer session in which he or she is suspended, no additional tuition or fees shall be required of the student on account of the suspension. During periods of campus emergency, as determined by the President of the individual campus, the President may, after consultation with the Chancellor, place into immediate effect any emergency regulations, procedures, and other measures deemed necessary or appropriate to meet the emergency, safeguard persons and property, and maintain educational activities. The President may immediately impose an interim suspension in all cases in which there is reasonable cause to believe that such an immediate suspension is required in order to protect lives or property and to insure the maintenance of order. A student so placed on interim suspension shall be given prompt notice of charges and the opportunity for a hearing within 10 days of the imposition of interim suspension. During the period of interim suspension, the student shall not, without prior written permission of the President or designated representative, enter any campus of the California State University other than to attend the hearing. Violation of any condition of interim suspension shall be grounds for expulsion.

Immunization Requirements: By direction of the Chancellor, immunization for or immunity to Measles/Rubella is required for all students born after 1/1/57, while immunization for or immunity to Hepatitis B is required for all first-time freshmen 18 or younger. The Hepatitis B vaccine is given in a series of three shots and takes six months to complete. Students enrolled in a California public school for the seventh grade or above after July 1, 1999 will have satisfied this requirement. If a student was not enrolled in a California public school for the seventh grade or above after July 1, 1999 the requirement for verification/immunization for Measles/Rubella must be fulfilled by the end of a student’s first semester. Verification/immunization of Hepatitis B must be completed before the end of a student’s second semester. To fulfill the requirement a student must bring written proof of immunization from a doctor, clinic or school transcript to the Klotz Student Health Center. If written proof is not available, students can receive the immunization(s) or blood tests to prove immunity for low cost at the health center. Students who cannot take the vaccination for religious, personal or medical reasons must sign a waiver.

NOTE: Students will be unable to register for classes until each requirement is met.

Meningococcal Vaccine: Because college students (especially freshmen living in student housing) are at an increased risk for meningococcal disease, the Advisory Committee of Immunization Practices recommends that colleges raise awareness about the disease and the benefits of immunization.

Student Health Insurance
Students who do not have insurance are strongly advised to purchase health insurance that will cover services beyond the scope of the Klotz Student Health Center (emergency services, hospitalization, maternity care, surgery, etc). A low cost health insurance plan, sponsored by Associated Students, is available for CSUN students. For more information: www.csuhealthlink.com

After hours, evenings, weekends and University holidays, Fonemed, a free telephone nurse service contracted by the Klotz Student Health Center, can answer medical questions or direct you to open healthcare resources at your own cost. This service is available ONLY to currently enrolled students of Cal State Northridge. This service cannot make or cancel appointments with the Klotz Student Health Center, review CSU immunization requirements, clear registration holds, nor address any nonmedical questions such as CSU Northridge academic policies and procedures. To reach Fonemed, call: (877) 678-3999. Please have your current student ID number available.

Student Involvement at the Klotz Student Health Center provides valuable volunteer opportunities for personal and professional growth.

Alive and Well Peer Health Education
Peer health educators provide resources to fellow student’s one on one, through presentations and by participating in campus-wide outreach activities.

CASE (Clinical Access Shadowing Experience) provides a one semester opportunity for students interested in pursuing a career in the medical or health care field to “shadow” experienced health care professionals and gain valuable insight to the inner-workings of a health care facility.

Unified We Serve, the volunteer program at California State University, Northridge, is an opportunity offered by the Matador Involvement Center for students to participate in furthering their education through serving the community. Unified We Serve is a great avenue to begin the process of exploring your community and volunteer and opportunities. Through volunteerism, you can expand and explore your interests and goals, learn and develop skills, and meet new people socially and professionally. As a volunteer you will gain the fulfillment of knowing that your time and energy will affect someone’s life.

If you are interested in participating in community service events as a collective group, you are interested in joining Unified We Serve (UWS). By joining UWS, you will be afforded the opportunity to help develop and participate in community service events with other students, train to be a CSUN leader of service, meet new people, and enhance your resume with dynamic skills and experiences. Community involvement and volunteerism can be an effective method for exploring career choices, and Unified We Serve provides you this opportunity by giving you direct insight to many different professional fields available to you! UWS events have consisted of clothing and food drives, providing holiday food baskets for families in need, mentoring youth, reading to kids, and fundraising walks. UWS members attend two meetings a month and are eligible to receive the President’s Volunteer Service Award.

The University Student Union (USU) at CSUN fosters the achievement of students’ educational goals by facilitating a strong connection between students and the University community. Located on the east side of campus between Lindley Avenue and Zelzah Avenue, the USU is committed to enhancing the University experience by engaging students through events, recreation, volunteer and job opportunities, various food options, study areas, computer lab and TV lounge, as well as the Student Recreation Center, Pride Center, Veterans Resource Center and Oasis Wellness Center. The USU also offers a wide range of meeting and event spaces available to student clubs and organizations through Reservations and Event Services. In addition, you’ll find study lounges, a prayer/mediation/reflection room, a washroom with two foot washing stations and a lactation room. The University Student Union is a 501(c) (3) non-profit corporation with a board of directors. Come experience the USU and start “Living the Matador Life.”

University Student Union
Board of Directors
Under the leadership of the student Chair and Vice Chair, the Board of Directors is comprised of a diverse representation of the university community that includes various committees that review programs, adopt policies, maintain facilities and oversee financial matters for the USU and its programs. The BOD strives to act in the best interest of the students and operate within the policies set forth by the Trustees of the California State University and CSUN. With the guidance of the BOD, the USU offers a variety of part-time employment and volunteer opportunities for students. It’s a great place to gain hands-on work experience, develop leadership abilities and refine decision-making and communication skills in a fun, student-centered environment. Students are encouraged to run for a seat on the BOD. You could be the one who brings new services to the USU and the change students want to see.

University Student Union
Events As the home to more than 100 events and programs every year, the University Student Union is always the exciting center of campus life at CSUN. When you’re looking for fun, food and entertainment, be sure to check out what’s going on every week at the USU. You can see our complete calendar of events at www.csun.edu/usu. Here are just a few examples of what you’ll find:

Matador Nights
An after dark celebration of music and school spirit presented by the USU. Matador Nights is the most anticipated event on the CSUN campus every semester. It’s a guaranteed good time for you and a few thousand new friends. Don’t miss this one.

Noontime Concerts
From hip-hop to indie rock and classical to country, join us for live music performances at our Noontime Concerts every Thursday, outdoors in the Plaza del Sol at the USU. Bring a friend or come and make a new one.

Craft Corner
Get in touch with your inner creative self and make something really cool using your own hands at Craft Corner, every Thursday in the Plaza del Sol at the USU.

Crunch Time
The antidote to the pressure of finals, Crunch Time is a finals week support program for CSUN students that relieves stress and encourages healthy study habits along with free food, fun activities and study giveaways to make your big week a little easier.

Upper Division Courses
Are numbered 300-499. Upper division students may take upper or lower division classes. An upper division student is one with 60 units or more.

Upper Division Writing Proficiency Exam
http://www.csun.edu/undergraduatestudies/UDWPE

As soon as you have earned 56 semester units and fulfilled the lower division writing requirement you are ready to take the Upper Division Writing Proficiency Exam (UDWPE). University policy requires that you take the UDWPE no later than the semester in which you will complete 75 units. You will be prevented from registering for classes in the semester following that in which 75 units are completed until you attempt the UDWPE. Many 400 level major courses require a passing score on the UDWPE as a prerequisite. You must pass this exam to graduate.

To reduce water use, a computerized weather-based irrigation system has been installed on campus. Sixty-two controllers are connected to a weather station, which supplies the data for determining how much water is needed in each sprinkler based on rain, temperature and humidity. This advanced control system avoids unnecessary watering.

Welcome All Matadors (WAM!)
CSUN wants to Welcome All Matadors, new and returning by kicking it off with a full month of activities in the Fall Semester. While supporting the continuous process of integrating students into the academic, social, and cultural climate of CSUN WAM! activities will be sure to increase students’ awareness of the many departments, activities, and programs that are offered here on campus! Activities include: The Clubs and Organizations recruitment fair, Vendor Fair, Open Houses offered by a variety of campus departments, the Associated Students Fair, and Movie Nights.

Winter Sessions
Take up to 4 units Offered in two components 3 week online courses or 4 week oncampus courses.

Withdrawal
A grade of “W” is assigned whenever you officially drop a course after the fourth week of class. A “W” does not enter into the calculation of your grade point average (GPA). If you do not withdraw properly from a class by the published deadline you can expect to receive a grade of “WU” which is equivalent to a grade of “F.”

Work Study
Federal Work-Study is a need-based form of Financial Aid that students earn through on or off-campus employment and receive in the form of a paycheck. The intent of the Federal Work-Study Program is to encourage part-time employment and reduce the amount of loan debt incurred while attending college. Money students earn under work-study does not count against the student’s aid eligibility when filling out next year’s FAFSA. Undergraduate, Credential and Graduate students with demonstrated high need are considered for a federal work-study award if all eligibility criteria are met and funds are available. The type of positions available through the federal work-study program include part-time paid internships, community service, research projects, or other endeavors closely related to a student’s academic degree program.

The consultants can also assist students in developing effective strategies for time management, analytic reading, note taking, and test taking. They offer individual consulting and group workshops for students getting ready for the UDWPE.

An appointment is necessary. Some same day walk-ins may be available depending on appointment cancellations.

Zipcar at CSUN
Skip the hassles of bringing a car to campus with Zipcar. It’s a car-sharing service that lets you reserve cars by the hour of the day. And you never have to worry about parking, car payments, maintenance, gas or insurance again. Need a reason to try Zipcar? Here are a few… Freedom. Need we say more?

You only need to be 18 or older to join. A variety of cars are parked right on campus in reserved spaces. On-the-go reservations with our mobile app. International drivers are welcome. Offer only valid for CSUN students.
