FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Matador Nights Bringing Out-of-this World Excitement to the University Student Union this Friday

Northridge — “Houston...We have a party!” The University Student Union invites all CSUN students for an intergalactic night of cosmic fun at Matador Nights this Friday, Sept. 4 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the USU. Be prepared to beam yourself up for a fun night of free food, live entertainment, great music, carnival rides and much more with a few thousand new friends.

“I am so excited about this semester’s Matador Nights. It will be an amazing welcome party for all new and returning Matadors, so get your tickets as soon as possible before they are all gone. It’ll definitely reach capacity” said USU Student Events Assistant, Joaquin Benavente “We really want to give CSUN students a night to remember and what better way than CSUN’s biggest party of every semester.”

Wax Motif and Reid Stefan will spin top hits while thousands of Matadors dance the night away. Students in attendance will experience a universe of free fun with a Gravitron, Ferris wheel, laser tag, Tarot Reader, Starcade, galactic casino, photo booth, caricature and glitter tattoo artists — as well as free food and beverages.

This event is free admittance for all CSUN students with a current photo I.D. Tickets are available now at the University Student Union Sol Center Information Desk and the A.S. Ticket Office. Matador Nights is for CSUN students only and a CSUN I.D. is required for entry. This is a very popular event and students are encouraged to get their free tickets now while they are still available.

Matador Nights has been entertaining CSUN students every semester since Spring 2006. The fun late night event has always included many exciting activities and special guests. The Spring 2015 edition featured special headliner Havana Brown as the Plaza del Sol transformed into a night out in Hawaii.
