FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Unleash Your Inner Artist at “Craft Corner: Virtual” with the University Student Union Online

Northridge— The University Student Union (USU) invites all Matadors get their creative juices flowing with the online version of one of the USU’s most popular events, “Craft Corner: Virtual”. Every Thursday from now through April 30 at 11 a.m., USU Events will be posting tutorials and step-by-step instructions on how to create the most brilliant crafts. Here’s a chance for students to have some creative fun while social distancing and taking a well-deserved break from online class work. All tutorials and instructions will be posted on the USU Instagram account.

“The USU wants our students to make the most out of their time safe at home and still enjoy being artistically engaged,” says Jayden Kael, Student Event Assistant at USU Events. “Creating these useful and handy crafts are a perfect way to do just that.”

“Craft Corner” is an opportunity for students to stay occupied and channel their creativity while in quarantine. With the help of useful instructional videos posted on the USU’s Instagram, participants can make their own Bandana Face Mask, refreshing DIY Coffee Scrubs, and decorate a favorite shirt. Each featured craft will have a theme that embraces our lives today.

Be sure to check out the USU’s latest Instagram posts and tap into your inner artist during these fun online crafting events with Craft Corner: Virtual! For further information
