Position:

The department of University Counseling Services at California State University, Northridge (CSUN) is seeking three (3) Post-Doctoral Fellows to serve in the Post-Doctoral Counselor Intern/Fellow position. These positions are for a 12-month appointment, starting mid-August 2024.

The Post-Doctoral Fellows will be expected to perform all the duties of a generalist clinician in a multidisciplinary, multicultural university counseling center and will receive supervision according to the State of California Board of Psychology guidelines.

Working under the general supervision of the Director of the University Counseling Services (UCS), the Post-Doctoral Fellows' duties include but are not limited to: clinical assessment and initial evaluations/intakes; short-term individual and couples counseling; group therapy and/or psycho-educational workshops; crisis intervention; case management and referral; consultation to faculty, staff, and various campus constituencies regarding students with mental health concerns; and outreach workshops and presentations for the campus community. Fellows are expected to develop and provide campus outreach programs and interventions to a target population (e.g., queer students of color, transgender or non-binary students, APIDA [Asian, Pacific Islander & Desi American students], students with disabilities, students who identify with a specific religious group, etc.) and contribute to the department's suicide prevention efforts. In addition, opportunities to provide training and/or supervision within the department's training programs (doctoral internship, social work internship, peer education programs) are provided, as well as the opportunity to develop or continue growth in an area of clinical interest and/or cultural diversity.

Fellows will attend UCS staff meetings, case conference groups, trainings, supervision, and retreats; and maintain ethical and timely documentation of all clinical work in electronic medical record keeping system.

This position may include the provision of telemental health services and/or remote work.

Successful candidates will be held to the standards and requirements of the college and department in which they are housed.

Required Qualifications:

- APA-accredited doctoral program in counseling or clinical psychology
- APA-accredited doctoral internship (currently or completed) *

- Demonstrated experience in the provision of short-term/brief therapy
- Demonstrated experience in the provision of crisis/urgent care services
- Demonstrated experience in the provision of group therapy
- Demonstrated experience in the development and provision of campus outreach programs

All requirements for doctoral degree in counseling or clinical psychology from an APA-accredited program must be met by start date of appointment, including the successful completion of an APA-accredited internship.*

Preferred Qualifications:

- Demonstrated commitment to multiculturalism and ability to work effectively with diverse individuals (e.g., race, ethnicity, culture, gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, religion, spirituality, ability differences, age, national origin, immigration status, language)
- Demonstrated professionalism and ability to work collaboratively with others
- Demonstrated written and oral communication skills and ability to engage in effective time management
- APA-accredited doctoral internship in a university/college counseling center
- Experience providing telemental health

Application Deadline:

Preferred application deadline is January 26, 2024 and applications received after this date may be considered on an as needed basis. However, the position will remain open until filled.

How to Apply:

Candidates should apply by completing the CSUN online application. To apply and for more detailed information on the application and hiring process, please visit this link: www.csun.edu/careers.

Applicants must submit the following items to the website in the section above.

- A cover letter (specifically indicating your interest and qualifications; highlighting the target population of interest for outreach; and any areas of interest)
- Curriculum vitae
- Three letters of recommendation (at least one from a current clinical supervisor), copy of graduate transcripts.

In later phases of the search process, applicants may be requested to provide verification of terminal degrees, licenses, and certificates.

At time of appointment, the successful candidate, if not a U.S. citizen, must have authorization from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to work in the United States.
