The SRC Hosts Biggest Party on Campus

- WHAT: The Student Recreation Center (SRC) Grand Opening Ceremony will feature a full day of activities, events, and games. After nearly 24 months of construction, the state-of-the-art facility is ready for use.
- WHO: Shanell Tyus, University Student Union (USU) events manager, will oversee all activities and events during the ceremony.
- WHEN: Thursday, Jan. 26, 2012 from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.
- WHERE: Plaza del Sol, USU; OST Lawn; and the SRC
- WHY: To provide students with an amazing, memorable day as we mark the opening of the SRC. Students have been anticipating the Grand Opening Ceremony, which will feature a full day of performances, DJ's, games, food, and much more.
- BACKGROUND: The SRC is 118,000 square feet, along with a 20,000 square foot Rec pool. Construction is complete and the countdown is closing in. The SRC is registering students this week and is expecting to register more when the facility is officially open. For more event information, visit usu.csun.edu/go.

###

The Student Recreation center (SRC) is committed to provide the CSUN community with opportunities for exercise and other recreation/leisure time activities that promote lifelong wellness and support student recruitment and retention. Also, to create recreational programs and facilities that foster CSUN spirit, and provide an environment that is welcoming, comfortable and fun. To learn more, please visit src.csun.edu.
