
Department: NursingEffective Date of Appointment: May 29, 2018*About the University:

One of the largest universities in the country, California State University, Northridge (CSUN) is an urban, comprehensive university that delivers award-winning undergraduate and graduate programs to nearly 40,000 students annually and counts more than 330,000 alumni who elevate Southern California and beyond. Since its founding in 1958, CSUN has made a significant and long-term economic impact on California, generating nearly $1.9 billion in economic impact and more than 11,700 jobs each year. The LAEDC recognized CSUN as its 2015 Eddy Award winner for its positive economic impact. Serving more students on Pell Grants than any other institution in California, CSUN is also a social elevator and one of the most diverse universities in the country. CSUN ranks 13th in awarding bachelor's degrees to traditionally underserved students and enrolls the largest number of students who are Deaf and hard-of-hearing of any U.S. state university. The journal Nature recently named CSUN a Rising Star for scientific research, and the NSF ranks CSUN in the top five nationally among similar institutions for graduates who go on to earn doctorates in the sciences. CSUN is where individuals rise. And through them, so does Greater Los Angeles and beyond.

About the College:

The College of Health and Human Development at California State University, Northridge offers fully accredited Bachelors' and Masters' degree programs in the departments of Child and Adolescent Development, Communication Disorders and Sciences, Environmental and Occupational Health, Family and Consumer Sciences, Health Sciences, Kinesiology, Nursing, Recreation and Tourism Management, and Physical Therapy. We have graduated over 3,000 students annually over the past several years from nearly 20 degree programs. Our programs span education, scholarship, and outreach services. We emphasize improvement of the quality of life for individuals and families, as well as managing services that promote health and well-being. Our collaborative approach fosters optimal learning for a diverse community of students, staff, and faculty.

About the Department:

As part of our commitment to advancing the uniqueness and integrity of the nursing discipline, nursing education at CSUN has achieved its recognition as one of the outstanding Departments in the College of Health and Human Development. Since the Nursing Department's inception in 2011, the dedicated and talented faculty and staff have taken many exciting initiatives; including quadrupling the number of qualified tenure track faculty, increasing the capacity of the accelerated BSN program by 50%, expanding the number of Community College Collaborative ADN-BSN program by 75%, achieving the continuous approval of the Board of Nursing (BRN) and the full re-accreditation by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), re-initiating the nursing Alumni Chapter, proposing the MSN program and developing the curriculum for the Nurse Practitioner and Nurse Educator programs, and offering evidence-based annual research day, periodic health and wellbeing services and community engagements along with and most significantly meeting and exceeding state and national benchmarks for students' success.

CSUN's Commitment to You:

CSUN is committed to achieving excellence through teaching, scholarship, learning and inclusion. Our values include a respect for all people, building partnerships with the community and the encouragement of innovation, experimentation and creativity. CSUN strives to cultivate a community in which a diverse population can learn and work in an atmosphere of civility and respect. CSUN is especially interested in candidates who make contributions to equity and inclusion in the pursuit of excellence for all members of the university community.
