Qualifications

The David Nazarian College of Business and Economics is accredited by AACSB International and expects all instructional faculty to meet and maintain current AACSB standards of faculty qualification. Applicants who do not meet AACSB standards of faculty qualification will not be considered. These qualifications may be met by a master's degree in Business, Economics or a related field accompanied by professional experience of a suitable length and level of responsibility, doctoral candidacy in Business, Economics or a related field (ABD status achieved within the most recent three years), a Ph.D. in Business, Economics or a related field (recently awarded or accompanied by a record of recent, high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarly publications), or a suitable combination of the professional experience, degrees, scholarship, and professional experience cited above. Evaluations of candidates will be based upon their academic background and scholarship, professional experience, teaching experience, and potential to publish in the Business, Economics fields (e.g., academic or trade journals). All part-time faculty are expected to participate actively in the academic life of the department and college. Candidates must demonstrate ability and commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.
