Qualifications
The David Nazarian College of Business and Economics is accredited by AACSB International and expects all instructional faculty to meet and maintain current AACSB standards of faculty qualification throughout their tenure. Applicants who do not meet AACSB standards of faculty qualification will not be considered. These qualifications, which continue to be sustained and current, may be met by a master’s degree in Operations Research, Operations Management or a related field accompanied by professional experience of a suitable length and level of responsibility, doctoral candidacy in Operations Research, Operations Management or a related field (ABD status achieved within the most recent three years), a Ph.D. in Operations Research, Operations Management or a related field (recently awarded or accompanied by a record of recent, high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarly publications), or a suitable combination of the professional experience, degrees, scholarship, and professional experience cited above. Evaluations of candidates will be based upon their academic background and scholarship, professional experience, teaching experience, and potential to publish in the Operations Research, Operations Management fields (e.g., academic or trade journals). To maintain faculty qualifications, all lecturers must continue in activities that build on the initial qualification. Please see section VIII.C of the Faculty Handbook. All lecturers are expected to participate actively in the academic life of the department and college. Candidates must demonstrate ability and commitment to working with a diverse student population. Preference will be given to candidates with teaching experience with positive student evaluation.

Application Process: Applicants must submit a current resume and a cover letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience. In later phases of the process, applicants may be requested to provide verification of terminal degrees, current professional work experience, and/or licenses/certificates, if any.
Application Deadline:
For Fall 2021 only/AY 2021-2022: April 5, 2021
For Spring 2022 Semester Only: November 8, 2021
