

TONY ROSS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP 2022 APPLICATION

This scholarship honors Anthony (Tony) Darrow Ross, an aspiring journalism student who passed away in 1979. Described as intelligent, creative and charismatic, Tony wrote for his high school newspaper, anchored on its TV channel and interned as a reporter at a local station. The scholarship, supported by contributions from his father, Richard S. Ross, is open to all CSUN Journalism majors (except PR majors) of junior- and senior-level academic standing. The successful candidate should display “great enthusiasm and promise for a career in broadcasting, reporting, editing, multimedia, social media, design and photojournalism, as well as community and participatory media.”

Qualifying students must also:

- Provide indication of financial need.
- Document a GPA of 3.0 or better.
- Demonstrate exceptional leadership and community service.
