

Department: Academic First Year Experiences

Effective Date of Appointment: Fall 2023

Courses or Specialization: University 396A: Transfer Success Seminar

CSUN's Commitment to You:

CSUN is committed to achieving excellence through teaching, scholarship, learning and inclusion. As an HSI (Hispanic Serving Institution), CSUN welcomes candidates whose experience in teaching, research, or community service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and inclusive excellence. Our values include a respect for all people, building partnerships with the community and the encouragement of innovation, experimentation and creativity. CSUN strives to cultivate a community in which a diverse population can learn and work in an atmosphere of civility and respect. CSUN is especially interested in candidates who make contributions to equity and inclusion in the pursuit of excellence for all members of the university community.

About the Office of Student Success:

The Office of Student Success facilitates this mission by developing, implementing, and supporting innovative practices, policies and programming that promote student achievement, eliminate the equity gap, and encourage timely degree completion. Through mentoring, early intervention, tutoring, and several other high impact practices (HIPs), CSUN is moving the needle on important success indicators that directly benefit students.

For more information about the Office of Student Success, visit our website at: <https://www.csun.edu/student-success>

About Academic First Year Experiences (AFYE):

AFYE provides opportunities for faculty, staff, and first-year students (including freshmen and new transfer students) to link curricular learning with co-curricular learning in ways that help new students make a successful transition to the University.

For more information about AFYE, visit our website at: <https://www.csun.edu/student-success/academic-first-year-experiences>

ANTICIPATED NEEDS:

Part-time lecturers: several positions available for fall 2023 to teach 1-unit sections of University 396A (U396A: Transfer Success Seminar). Assignments for spring and summer 2024 will be made from the same pool.

Note: All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank. Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

Salary Range: For a 1-unit assignment, typical starting compensation ranges from $1812 (Rank 2) to $2162 (Rank 3).

Current Courses of Specialization: UNIV 396A

Qualifications:

Minimum Qualifications:

1. Earned master's degree or equivalent by June 30, 2023.
2. Potential to teach college juniors in a transfer success seminar course at CSUN effectively.
3. Experience and knowledge necessary to guide students to available research, internship, volunteer/community service, work experience, leadership/mentoring, and networking opportunities within one or more specific majors or colleges at CSUN.
4. Experience teaching or professionally presenting to groups of college students.

5. Written recommendations from two professional references. At least one reference must be from an individual who has observed the applicant's skills teaching or professionally presenting to a group of college students within the last five years (we will not accept a recommendation from an individual who saw the applicant present as a student in a class). See additional professional recommendation details below.
6. Demonstrated ability to teach and mentor a diverse student population, including first-generation, economically disadvantaged, underserved, and historically underrepresented groups in higher education.
7. Agreement to use the Canvas learning management system for AFYE course(s).
8. Attendance at the Annual U396A Faculty Retreat (choice of Tuesday, May 16 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. or Wednesday, May 17 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.; limited opportunities for make-up may be available). Qualified applicants will receive an email invitation to the retreat.
9. Good organization and communication skills.
10. Ability to meet deadlines reliably.
11. Professionalism (working collegially to support student success).

Desirable Qualifications:

1. Familiarity with the CSUN campus and resources.
2. Willingness to participate in additional AFYE-sponsored professional development activities during the summer of 2023.

Application Process:

Applicants must submit a current résumé/CV, letter of interest, reflection, and two professional recommendations no later than the deadline of Thursday, March 23 at 4 p.m. The electronic submission address is listed below.

In later phases of the search process, applicants may be requested to provide verification of degrees, licenses, and certificates.

See more detailed information about the application process at this link.

- Résumé/CV: Must include your educational background (degrees earned); prior teaching experience; evidence of professional development; evidence of scholarship and/or related professional experience; and your current email address.

Before submitting electronically, please save your Résumé/CV with the following file name format: 2023_Resume_LastName_FirstName

- Letter of Interest: Your letter must clearly describe how you meet each of the qualifications listed on the announcement. Since U396A is cohorted by major or college, please indicate the major(s) and/or college(s) in which you have the experience necessary to guide students to research, internship, volunteer/community service, work experience, leadership/mentoring, and networking opportunities. Please also indicate all coursework, degrees, or work experience that could be considered relevant to the major/college.

Before submitting electronically, please save your Letter of Interest (LOI) with the following file name format: 2023_LOI_LastName_FirstName

- Reflection: No more than 250 words for your answers to both of the questions listed below.
 - (1) Based on recent feedback you have received about your teaching or professionally presenting (for instance, student evaluation of faculty data or comments, class visit report, or performance evaluation), what is one thing you plan to change about your approach to teaching or presenting next fall and why?
 - (2) What are some of the major obstacles students face when transferring from a community college to a university and how will you address them in your U396A class?

Before submitting electronically, please save your Reflection with the following file name format: 2023_U396A_Reflection_LastName_FirstName

- Recommendations: Two written professional recommendations. At least one reference must be from an individual who has observed you teaching or professionally presenting to a group of college students within the last five years (we will not accept a recommendation from an individual who saw the applicant present as a student in a class).

Professional Recommendations:

Please ask your recommenders to complete the recommendation form available at the link below. Note: although the committee prefers that recommenders use the form, a standard letter is acceptable when it is not possible for a recommender to complete the form. In such cases, it is advantageous to you if the letter addresses all of the content on the form. Standard letters should be sent to: Kimberly.henige@csun.edu

The personnel committee will consider forms/letters from only two recommenders. If more than two are received, the first two will be read and others will be discarded. If applicants would like to replace previously received letters, please send a formal email request to: Kimberly.henige@csun.edu

The deadline for receipt of recommendations is Thursday, March 23 at 4 p.m. The committee will not accept recommendations submitted by applicants.

Application Deadline: Thursday, March 23 at 4 p.m.	For Academic Year: 2023-2024
