Personnel Policies and Procedures of Librarians

This document is intended to supplement Section 600 of the CSUN Administrative Manual.

Responsibilities of Faculty Committees

College Level

Composition and eligibility

- a. Librarians who are serving in two or more University departments are regarded as full-time librarians if their various professional appointments add up to a full-time position. College Personnel Committee members shall be elected from librarians of senior rank who are nominated at a meeting of librarians, the agenda of which has been previously distributed. Elections shall be by secret ballot. All probationary and tenured library faculty unit employees are eligible to vote. The members shall serve overlapping two-year terms.

Responsibilities

- c. All deliberations and policy decisions that are of a general nature and not specifically related to an individual library faculty member shall be disseminated to the entire library faculty.
