

Vincent J. Monastersky

Vice President, Risk Management, Fox Entertainment Group, LLC

After graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business from the State University College at Oneonta, Vincent J. Monastersky started his professional career in New York, working as an insurance broker in the Personal lines business.

Relocating to Los Angeles, he broadened his professional experience with GNW-Evergreen Insurance Services, specializing in Personal and Commercial lines insurance. While attaining his Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) designation, he discovered his passion for risk management after attending his first Certified Risk Manager (CRM) course. He continued on to earn that designation as well as the Associate in Risk Management (ARM) degree.

Vincent applies that knowledge and expands his experience as the Vice President of Risk Management at Fox Entertainment Group where he has been for over 11 years. Vincent is proudly serving as the Past President for the Los Angeles Chapter of RIMS.
