CRIME PREVENTION TIPS

- If something makes you feel uncomfortable, trust your instincts and leave the area.
- Witness rich environments can deter criminal activity. Limit time in isolated areas whenever possible.
- Be mindful of suspicious activity - If you observe suspicious activity or a crime in progress be a good witness and call the police immediately! Describe exactly what you observed with as many details as possible. Give complete descriptions such as sex, race, age, height, weight, hair color, clothing, tattoos, scars. CSUN PD: (818) 677-2111.
- Dialing 911 while on campus will connect you to the University Police. You can also program the CSUN PD dispatch (818) 677-2111 into your cell phone for quick access when needed.
- Empower yourself. Utilize available services and classes offered by the University Police such as R.A.D. (Rape Aggression Defense) personal self-defense classes for both Women and Men or the Aerosol Defense Course for the community. See additional classes and resources at <https://www.csun.edu/police/crime-prevention>.
