Grades, Academic Standing & Transcripts

- The grade you earn for your CSUN fully online course will be reported automatically to your home CSU as transfer credit. You must drop your CSUN class by the deadline on page 1 or request formal approval to drop after the deadline to avoid a grade of WU (unauthorized withdrawal), which will count as an F.
- Your academic standing at CSUN will also count. If you receive a D, F or WU grade at CSUN, you could be put on academic notice or become disqualified even if you remain in good standing at your home CSU. Academic notice or disqualification will become part of your permanent academic record.
- If the course allows it, you can change the grading basis from a letter grade to Credit/No Credit before Sept. 24. Just be aware of the possible consequences. Learn more at Change Grade Basis Guide.
- As a student at CSUN, you'll need to order a CSUN transcript for this fully online class for future academic endeavors such as transferring or graduate school.
