“Never stop believing in the power of your ideas, your imagination, your hard work to change the world”

- Barack Obama

Serving more than 42,000 students each year, CSUN is one of the largest universities in the United States and it has an impact to match its size. CSUN ranks 10th in the country in awarding bachelor’s degrees to underrepresented minority students, 5th nationally in awarding master’s degrees to Hispanic students and enrolls the largest number of deaf and hard-of-hearing students of any U.S. state university. Our 171 academic programs and engaged centers enjoy international recognition for excellence. We currently partner with more than 100 institutions of higher education in 22 countries around the globe and attract the largest international student population of any U.S. master’s level institution. We are a welcoming university that champions accessibility, academic excellence and student success.
WHY CSUN?

WHY WE MATTER.

Sited in the heart of Los Angeles’ San Fernando Valley, our beautiful 356-acre campus is home to a diverse community of 38,310 students and over 4,000 faculty and staff.

Our nine colleges offer 60 baccalaureate degrees, 41 master’s degrees, 28 credentials in the field of education, and various opportunities in extended learning.

With over 200 clubs & organization, our community provides a space for inclusion and growth by empowering student leaders through organizational collaboration and hands-on management experience.

CSUN CENTERS & RESOURCES

Faculty Affairs

Faculty Affairs is a unit within the division of Academic Affairs and is the central location for all faculty-related programs, policies, and procedures. We manage various personnel processes including: faculty retention, tenure, and promotion.

Faculty Development

Faculty Development provides relevant and thought-provoking programming to support all faculty in their teaching, scholarship, service, and leadership journeys. We seek a supportive culture of shared power that engages with the well-being and success of both faculty and students.

The Soraya

The mission of The Soraya is to present a wide variety of performances that not only includes new and original work from the Los Angeles region but also work from around the world that appeal to all of LA’s rich and diverse communities.

The Oasis Center

The Oasis is a welcoming destination where CSUN students can find serenity and relaxation amid the rush and activity of campus life. It offers nutrition counseling, meditation, massages, acupuncture, nap pods and workshops focused on wellness and managing stress — all intended to promote student academic success.

Student Recreation Center

The Student Recreation Center is a 138,000 square foot facility for exercise and leisure activity that promotes lifelong health and wellness. The eco-friendly facility has got it all — the most up-to-date equipment, a friendly and welcoming staff, and tons of school spirit! Are you ready to play Matadors?

CSUN is strongly committed to achieving excellence through teaching, scholarship, active learning and diversity. We value respect for all people, build alliances with the community and encourage innovation, experimentation and creativity.
BENEFITS

CSUN offers you and your family a comprehensive benefits package including health plans, retirement plans, tuition reduction and other employee programs. We realize that making benefit choices and navigating the details of benefit coverage can be challenging. We provide you with the information you need to make the best coverage choices and to access information needed to manage your plan after you have made those choices.

CHILDCARE

The Associated Students Children’s Center is a high-quality early childhood program that provides a safe and nurturing environment while promoting the physical, social, emotional and intellectual development of young children. We are accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), which administers a national, voluntary professionally sponsored accreditation system for all types of preschools and child care centers.
