

the CENTER FOR SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA STUDIES
and the
COLLEGE OF SOCIAL AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES
are proud to host

SPONSORED BY

THE ANNUAL
ENVISIONING CALIFORNIA LECTURE

Year of the Angry Voter

Your Guide to the 2016 Elections

Please join us for the annual Envisioning California Lecture as we discuss the unprecedented nature of the 2016 elections. Our panel discussion will include Dan Schnur, Director of the Jesse Unruh Institute of Politics, Kareem Crayton, Visiting Professor at Vanderbilt Law School, and Adrian Pantoja, senior analyst with Latino Decisions. Our panel will be moderated by Marisa Abrajano, Associate Professor of Political Science at UC San Diego.

THURSDAY
April 28

7:00PM • LITTLE THEATRE • NORDHOFF HALL 121

Reservations are required. To register for this event, please visit:

www.csun.edu/cscs

This event is free of charge. Reception to follow. Parking is $6 per car at Information Booth #3 at Prairie Street and Zelzah Avenue.

Communication services (sign language interpreters, note takers, real-time captionists, or assistive listening devices) are available for this event. Requests for services must be submitted at least five (5) working days in advance.

CSUN

CALIFORNIA
STATE UNIVERSITY
NORTHRIDGE