

A Resolution of the Faculty Senate at California State University, Northridge Honoring
Heidi Wolfbauer
May 17, 2018

Whereas Heidi Wolfbauer has rendered remarkable service to California State University, Northridge by serving at CSUN for thirty-eight years, and as administrative specialist for the Faculty Senate during the last twelve years; and

Whereas she has skillfully and indefatigably served under the administration of at least four different University presidents; and

Whereas she has also served as a Jacqueline-of-All-Trades as well as the Queen of Patience and Caring; and

Whereas she has extinguished countless fires and solved innumerable problems across campus; and

Whereas her gifts of grace, artistry, and meticulous attention to detail were evident at every Faculty Retreat and other University-related events; and

Whereas she has displayed great flexibility in the face of daunting last-minute changes; and

Whereas she has been an unmatched repository of campus lore and tradition;

Now therefore be it

Resolved: that we could have said much more in her praise, because there is much more to say, but we have limited ourselves to a single page in tribute to her own skills as a communicator and writer; and be it further

Resolved: that this resolution be entered into the permanent records of the Faculty Senate; and be it finally

Resolved: that the members of the Faculty Senate do hereby bestow upon Heidi Wolfbauer their heartfelt gratitude for her generous and expert years of outstanding service.
