

RESOLUTION of the Faculty Senate

Regarding Voluntarily Adding Student Supportive Language to Syllabi

February 2021

(Approved by the Faculty Senate, February 18, 2021)

WHEREAS, The Faculty Senate of California State University, Northridge has found it concerning that many of our students face challenges with meeting basic needs: food insecurity, housing precarity/homelessness, mental health, healthcare, technology, and elder/childcare; be it therefore

RESOLVED: That the Faculty Senate strongly urge faculty to consider adding the following language to their syllabi to support student equity, especially during the pandemic, and link to CSUN's basic needs hub, CSUN with A HEART (<https://www.csun.edu/heart>).

Sample language for syllabi:

CSUN with A HEART

If you are facing challenges related to food insecurity, housing precarity/homelessness, mental health, access to technology, eldercare/childcare, or healthcare, you can find guidance, help, and resources from CSUN with A HEART (<https://www.csun.edu/heart>).