

Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual Support Environment Assessment

CSUN Positive Space Program's

ALLY PROJECT

<http://www.csun.edu/~psp/>

True or False?

- 1) My campus has GLB student organizations supported by student government funds.
- 2) My campus has GLB support groups through our counseling center.
- 3) My campus has a GLB faculty / staff association.
- 4) My campus has courses regarding GLB history and culture.
- 5) My campus' affirmative action statement includes sexual orientation.
- 6) My campus has a minority affairs office that includes sexual orientation.
- 7) My housing office has a clearly stated policy in the student handbook or conduct code that prohibits harassment and discrimination to minorities and includes GLB people.
- 8) My housing office does not grant immediate room changes on the basis of sexual orientation, unless there is a threat of danger to the resident.
- 9) I have openly GLB people on my professional staff.
- 10) I have openly GLB people on my student staff.
- 11) There is a workshop each semester on GLB issues that is handled through our training program.
- 12) We monitor publications, fliers, and handbooks to assure that they do not exclude GLB people by assuming heterosexuality.
- 13) There is a policy that allows married couples to serve as hall director / area coordinators, and we extend this same policy to gay and lesbian couples.
- 14) There is a strong commitment in our office to treat all people equally. This is as evident with our GLB population as it is with racial minorities.
- 15) GLB people find my campus community a relatively comfortable environment.
- 16) GLB people say that our housing office is a visibly supportive unit.
- 17) When there is an office social, GLB colleagues are encouraged to bring their significant others or partners.

 For more information, see: Evans, Nancy and Vernon Wall. Beyond Tolerance: Gays, Lesbians, and Bisexuals on Campus. American College Personnel Association, 1991.

This document was created with Win2PDF available at <http://www.daneprairie.com>.
The unregistered version of Win2PDF is for evaluation or non-commercial use only.